They are dancing in the "Crutchfield House, only a short distance from where I am writing. I can hear the music and hear the caller "call off." Hope they will have a good time.

If you have a spare Photo of yourself I should be very happy to receive a call from it.

Why cannot we write oftener. It seems a long time from the arrival of one letter until the next one makes its appearance.

Well you are tired, I know, and wish this letter was wound up.

Hoping soon to hear from you, I remain your sincere friend
