

for the student body to show its appreciation by helping make the Home Concert a grand success.

THE PAPERS termed the action of a certain eastern Court against a group of foul murders, "Lightning Justice" because of the speed with which they arrived at their conclusion in regard to the punishment of these criminals. Some more "lightning justice" might serve to put a crimp in Crime. If the way of the transgressor was harder perhaps there would be less lawbreakers.

NINETY-TWO OIL promoters, according to a newspaper of recent date, were apprehended by the arm of the law. If there existed such a supply of fakers there must be some demand for them. People must enjoy being beat, it isn't because they don't know better.

THE LITERARY Societies as an avenue of expression and consequently, personal development have no parallel in this or any College. It is strange that people should neglect such opportunities as the Literary Societies afford for intellectual development and entertainment. Let us make the last six weeks of school count for our Literary Societies.

WHY DO people flee from facts?" asked a man the other day. On every hand we see this taking place. For instance why do the Debates and Literary Societies go begging for ample audiences while the theatres are crowded? Most of us could broaden our mental vision by a more careful discrimination of the way we spend our leisure time.

WHEN THE best eighty square inches of space in a big city newspaper, are given over to the account of a person who had no more discretion to put it euphemistically, than to dance for sixty-six hours, we are almost constrained to join the ranks of the pessimists and declare with them that we are headed the same way as was ancient Rome. Whether this be true or not, we ought at least tighten up and quit skidding.

PLAIN DEALER PICTURES OF ASHLAND STUDENTS

The Cleveland Plain Dealer of the issues of Monday and Tuesday of this week carried pictures on the pictorial page of Miss Frieda Price with an explanatory note of her honor as Queen of the May, and of Marion Baylor with a note of his prominence at Ashland and his recent election as Basketball Captain for 1924.

HOUSE COUNCIL ATTENTION!

The Freshman girls of the University of Iowa are granted dates according to scholarship. The approximate grade for which one mid-week date is granted, after a girl's petition is presented, is 84 per cent. For an average of 8 per cent above, two dates during the week may be added.

ss—Hankinson.
lf—Baylor.
rf—Essick or Schmuck.
cf—Weber.
e—McClintock.
p—Keifer or Schmuck.

Twelve men will be carried on the trip. Practice this week consisted of more drills on fundamentals with a touching off with a few of the fine points of the game. If Keifer can get the backing that he needs Ashland stands a good chance of carrying off the laurels for the day. A good, snappy infield behind him says that Wooster will not often get to first on easy ones.

Students Will Back Team

A large number of students are planning to accompany the team to Wooster. The larger the number the better are Ashland's chances for a win. The team will appreciate all support that the students can give.

MANCHESTER QUINTET IN VICINITY

The Men's Quintet from Manchester College at Manchester, Indiana, gave a concert Sunday evening at the Diekey Church near here. Some of the students who were out there the vocal artists report a fine entertainment.

WOOSTER TO BE PLAYED ON SATURDAY

Coach Murray received a letter from Coach Boles this week that announced that the Ashland-Wooster game would again have to be slated for Saturday. It was discovered that the Wooster-Case track meet was to be on Friday instead of Saturday.

"I couldn't see a woman standing up while I was sitting."

"So you gave her your seat?"

"No, I closed my eyes and pretended to be asleep."

Entire Student Body Excited; Reason?--Sure, One Is Enough

Students have been in an uproar this week owing to very startling and unprecedented occurrences which have taken place here.

Prof. A. L. DeLozier, Head of the Department of Romance Languages, announced Monday that he was the proud possessor of a sweet and dimpled baby girl. But—when interrogated as to the appellation which had been appended to the flavored name of "DeLozier" he responded, "By George,—If we didn't forget that!" So this sweet and winsome one is as yet without a given name and students are busily engaged in searching for the most becoming name for the new arrival.

A paper was found tacked upon the bulletin board Tuesday upon which students were instructed to write their suggestions. A large number of valuable suggestions were received but none appear to be quite apt. Some of those suggested were: Joan D'Arc, Cosette, Columba, Mehitable, Melissa, and "any two French idioms." The "Collegian" however, realizing that some measures must be taken to fit a fitting name to the new arrival, undertakes the conduct of a contest the winner of which will be appointed as godfather or godmother of the youngster.

Judges of the contest will be William Howard Taft, W. G. Harding, Upton Sinclair and Andrew Gump. Suggestions should be submitted directly to the judges and the winner will be announced next week.

BEING PUT IN SHAPE

Work Will be Finished This Week

Before many more days the tennis courts will be in shape for play.

The old courts were situated on the site which the new building now occupies and the new courts are being put into shape on the ground to the north of the athletic field and to the west of the dormitory. Work began on the new courts last summer, the courts being played on last fall. They were not in tip-top shape then, however, and the work is being continued this spring to put them in the best of condition.

The work is under the direction of Coach Murray who is assisted by students who volunteer to lend a hand. Money for the courts is being put up by the College in the plan to beautify the campus. The courts will be sanded this week and will in all probability be in readiness by the last of the week.

"Dad" Petit the jovial janitor, wove the nets for the courts. Other nets have been unsatisfactory and so his services were called in to get some "real" nets. There will be two courts to take care of the spring rush.

Students Warned to Keep off with Street Shoes

Students are admonished to keep off the courts with street shoes on. A great deal of work and money had been expended to put the courts in shape and much harm can be done to the courts with heeled shoes. The united support of the student body is asked to keep the courts in shape.

REV. LECKRONE WILL PREACH SUNDAY

Rev. Quincy Leckrone of Claremont Avenue, has been invited to preach at the church services next Sunday.

CLUB NEXT MONDAY

Will Be Given at Ashland Opera House

The home concert of the Glee Club this year is going to be a success if the girls in the Club have anything to say about it.

It will be given next Monday night in the Ashland Opera House and will be managed in the same way large shows are managed. Seats will be reserved and will be drawn at the Ashland Drug Co. Saturday. The girls will canvass the city in order to make doubly sure that the Opera House will have its seats filled. The theater has a seating capacity of about eight hundred and if it is filled to capacity it certainly will speak well for the interest of the city and the industry of the girls.

Special Exhortation to Students

A special exhortation was given to students in Chapel on Tuesday morning to attend the concert in full force. It was pointed out that the Club is better this year than ever before and that student support should be given to this organization as well as others. Last year the entertainment was given at the High School auditorium and only a small number were present to hear the splendid program. This year it is expected, however, that at least ninety percent of the students will attend.

Practice was resumed this week for this entertainment and new numbers will appear on the program.

Musical Treats of Program

The concert will be given in three parts. Solos, duets and readings will vary the program. In the third part of the concert Miss Bonita Myers will sing two selections, "In Italy" by Jeanne Boyd, and "Nichavo" by Manu Zucco. One of the features of the Indiana trip was the reading of Lauretta Bockley who met with wide approval. Miss Bockley will read at the home concert.

Misses Shirley Price and Harriett Becknell will sing a duet in costume called "Gypsies." Other features are trios and splendid choruses.

pursuit of the Classical Divinity Course. Rowsey is a member of the Philomathean Literary Society and also a member of the Gospel Team. He is one of the bulwarks of the football team, having played a guard position for the last two years. "Rows" is also a member of the Debate Team. His present work is handling the editions of the Cleveland Press in this city. He is well fitted for the position of Business Manager, being of an energetic type and well known among the business men of Ashland.

Locke Should Make Good Editor

The chief claim of Mr. Locke to fame on the campus is his unceasing expatiation. Any one with such a prolificity of words seems pre-destined to fill the shoes of an editorship. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Glenn Locke of Woodstock, Virginia, Mr. Locke being a member of the Board of Trustees. In his tender years Locke attended the Massanutten Military Institute from which he graduated and entered here.

Since his entrance here he has been prominent in school activities, being elected to the honorary organization of the "Scribes" last year, a member of the Philomathean Literary Society, and a member of the debate team upon which he acted as alternate. His literary qualifications make him especially fitted for the office.

"SCRIBES" WILL HOLD ANNUAL OPEN MEETING

Invitations Extended to Students and Faculty

The second annual open meeting of the "Scribes" will be held on next Thursday evening at seven-thirty in the Chapel. This will be the second program that the "Scribes" have given before the student body and faculty.

Invitations will be sent out the first of the week and a large number are expected to attend. Three numbers will be on the program at this meeting.

One or some of the numbers on the program will be papers upon which a general discussion will take place. Last year a lively discussion was held over with the subject of Christian Science and the subjects that will be presented this year will be no less interesting. Members of the organization are especially anxious for the first year men and women to come and become acquainted with the nature and conduct of the organization.

PREXY TO DELIVER ADDRESS IN MANSFIELD

President Jacobs will deliver an address to the Public School teachers of Mansfield next Wednesday evening on the subject, "America's Supreme Gift to the World."
