

HARRIET BECKNELL SUCCESSFUL IN WORK

Miss Harriet Becknell, a Junior in the College of Arts, has been assisting in revival services at Teegarden, Indiana, where she has ably conducted the singing and taken charge of the work with the children of the Brethren church at that city.

President Jacobs is in receipt of a letter from the pastor of the church there that is highly commendatory. The letter says in part: "Miss Becknell's efforts are certainly very satisfactory to us. Her pleasing personality, method of conducting and work with the children deserve special mention. Already she has won the respect and esteem of our community."

Miss Becknell is active in the Y. W. C. A. here and her ability as a singer is well known.

NEW QUARTERLY TO BE READY WHEN SCHOOL OPENS

The new Ashland College Quarterly will be published during Christmas vacation.

This number will be known as the "Student Activity Number" and will contain explanations and reviews of the various activities of the students.

Everything that the student does will be included from football to Gospel team.

This next quarterly can be anticipated with pleasure as it will contain articles by President Jacobs, Prof. H. H. Wolford, Coach Murray and others.

Football Banquet Ends Season

President Jacobs

Dr. Jacobs in a splendid address told the banqueters of the plans for the future in regard to athletics and briefly reviewed the efforts of the athletic teams in the past few years.

He spoke of the tremendous benefit that was derived from the athletics of the College not only by the men who participated in them but also by the College which gained much material benefit thereby.

Dr. Jacobs went on to say that every trustee of Ashland College favored athletics and games in the college and that they were a unit for them. However, they are not in favor of athletics predominating. The faculty also stands in favor of games and athletics.

The banquet was concluded by the singing of the College song, "Old College Home."
