

the absence of McClintock.

Plenty of Music

The newly organized College Band will make its first appearance on this day and will play between games at the gym. The College Orchestra, which is under the direction of Miss Anna Brauer will play at the evening meal.

Dinner and supper will be served in the Domestic Science rooms for the members of the teams participating in the Tournament. The Ashland and Findlay teams together with the two teams who are to play for the championship of the Tournament in the evening will be served with a special meal in the evening.

Interest in the Tournament is at high pitch. Some of the schools that are entering teams will bring as many as fifty rooters with them. Each school will have a section reserved for its rooters in the balcony. College students will occupy the bleachers on the floor.

JUNIORS ENJOY FROLIC AT COUNTRY HOME

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Latter Entertain Upperclassmen

Wednesday evening, February 21, the Junior Class journeyed to the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Latter, south of this city to an oyster supper with hot mince pie and all the trimmings common to such a feed.

Arrangements were made by Herman Koontz, president of the class, Harriet Becknell and Laura Eichelberger. Mr. Latter was kind enough to come to the girls' dormitory in a conveyance for the purpose and carry the class to the Latter home, returning again after the evening's jollity.

On account of sickness and other undesirable conditions four of the members of the class were unable to be present.

Prof. and Mrs. Wolford were guests. Prof. Wolford has been advisor of the class of '24 since it entered College. After the festivities, Mr. Walton cleverly acted as toastmaster. He remarked briefly as to the chief excellencies of the Junior Class then called upon Prof. Wolford for a brief dissertation. The Professor commented the class upon its co-operation and good spirit. Pres. Herman Koontz made a few remarks. Koontz could not say much so soon after eating.

Reports of Annual

Paul Curry, editor-in-chief of "Pine Whispers," and Fred Schmuck, business manager gave reports regarding the progress of the Annual, after which the class disposed of other business.

The evening progressed rapidly with music and games. To bring the conviviality of the evening to a close the members of the class gathered around the fire and with dimmed lights for half an hour sang college songs dear to the heart of every Junior. Mrs. Latter served Sea Foam at regular intervals. At a reasonable hour

(Continued on page 3)

President, Catherine Teeter, of Dayton; Secretary, Miss Virginia Haun of Woodstock, Virginia, and Treasurer, Fern Hartzler, of Rittman, Ohio. The officers will assume their duties early in April.

Mrs. Miller gave a very interesting talk at this meeting on the "Daughter's Duty to Her Mother." She said that the four great words that a girl should keep in mind in remembering her mother are: Liberty, Comfort, Beauty and Joy. She said that it ought to be the duty of every daughter to make these words mean all that they possibly can to their mother. She spoke of the duty of a College girl to her mother. She said that since she cannot visit her own mother, she should visit another mother. She said that it is the duty of every girl to write home to her mother as often as possible and to remember her with a gift once in a while. "It would lighten her loneliness and help her so much to know that you remembered her. It is said that the old hunger for love more than bread, and cheerfully, the virtuous daughter will labor for her mother." She said that the model daughter will be proud of her mother and will attempt to introduce her to as many of her friends as possible. "A mother will do anything for you" she argued and inferred that the compliment should be returned. "A son is a son until he marries a wife but a daughter is a daughter all her life," she quoted. She said that a daughter should be a steady light unto her parents' lives and that her duty is to make them happy in their old age.

(Continued on page 3)

GOBLINS CONTINUE GROTESQUE GESTICULATIONS

Investigations Baffled by Window-blind Agitations

The campus spooks are still at large.

All efforts to capture the elusive goblins that have been responsible for the recent alarming nocturnal occurrences have so far failed, it was reported here today. Persons who have been investigating the case are working on several theories, but there has been no intimation that anything definite has been discovered. Investigation has been seriously handicapped thus far since no one has as yet succeeded in inveigling his way into the particular rooms in Allen Hall where the ghosts seem to be most active, but it is hoped that a suspension of the rules may be obtained soon so that more thorough researches may be made. It is understood that this matter is to be brought before the House Council and such investigation shall necessarily have to be discontinued until action can be taken.

Window-Blinds Become Agitated

Instead of becoming intimidated on account of recent publicity, the spooks are actually becoming bolder. No longer do they confine themselves to pyrotechnic exhibitions alone but are also beginning to assert themselves in other ways. A cer-

Dr. Shively Speaks On Evils Of Superficial Education

An unusually interesting address was made to the student body in Chapel last Monday morning when Dr. Shively spoke on "Culture."

Dr. Shively took up different instances where the so-called culture proved to be only a thin veneer and then enumerated others where true and thorough culture was shown. He related the account of an incident that occurred in England where there is supposed to be a larger amount of refinement and culture than there is here in America. Upon this occasion there was to be a great charity ball at which the best blood of the land was to be present. The evening of the ball came and when the room was crowded a fire broke out. A rush followed and after the fire had been subdued there was taken from the debris the remains of one hundred and eighty women and not a single man. The men had lost their courtesy and chivalry under the influence of the danger.

At the time when the great steamship "Titanic" left its pier in Liverpool and headed westward it was supposed to be an unsinkable giant. As we know, it encountered a submerged iceberg that tore a gap in its side and the ship sank quickly. The most orderly departure was made from the ship and those that stayed aboard showed surpassing bravery. One man waved to the occupants of the last lifeboat and said, "Remember me kindly to my friends in test the validity of an education.

(Continued on page 3)

1. Has education given you sympathy with all good causes and made you espouse them?

2. Has it made you public spirited?

3. Has it made you a brother to the weak?

4. Have you learned how to make friends and keep them?

(Continued on page 3)

APPRECIATIVE AUDIENCE ATTENDS STUDENT RECITAL

Owing to inefficient advertising, a very small but nevertheless appreciative crowd enjoyed a splendidly rendered recital last Tuesday evening. Several students of the special departments who have never before appeared in a recital, made their debut at that time.

The Departments show a very decided improvement over all former years. They are becoming veritable storehouses of cultural development.

Miss Mary Brubaker of Homerville, Ohio struck the most reverberating chord in the hearts of the students when she flayed campus problems in her reading.

The program rendered was as follows:

Sing, Robin, Sing Spaulding
Edith Coleman

(Student of Ruth Beekley)

In Maytime Speaks

Your Smile a Pearl Ward-Stephens
Kathryn Teeter

Nadia Wachs
Elizabeth Lutz

The Home Town Guest
The Lady Boarder Ware

Florence Correll

Danny Deever Damrosch
Vernon Miller

The Skylark Tchaikowsky
Vera Dessenberg

The Quiet Road Speaks
Helen George

Pitti Palace Cavell
Evelyn Haight

Friend O' Mine Sanderson
Ramona Marcus

So Did I Cooke
Berenice Armstrong

Walzer Grieg
Elfin Danse Grieg

Charlotte Teeter

The Lion and The Mouse Klein
Luzetta Crone

The Nightingale Has a Lyre of Gold
Whelpley

The Song of the Lark Speaks
Miriam Crofford

A Campus Incident Ben Hare
Mary Brubaker

Waltz Chopin
Mrs. Ora DeFord

Spring's Singing MacFayden
Harriet Becknell

DEAN MILLER TO PREACH SUNDAY

Dean J. Allen Miller will deliver the sermon at the Sunday morning service.

McClintock Suffers Injury

The Purple and Gold machine was slowed up perceptibly when Freddie McClintock, star forward, was forced to retire from the game with a dislocated thumb. This accident incapacitated Freddie for further playing and he was removed from the game.

This accident occurred in the first two minutes of play and the absence of McClintock from the lineup showed how much of a factor he has been in the work of the team.

At the beginning of the game Capital got the ball from the tipoff and rushed for the basket. Ashland recovered the ball and countered with a rush and some shots that failed. A Capital man broke loose under his basket and annexed the first score for his team. Ashland scored shortly after and then capital cut loose with a bevy of shots that made the future murky for Ashland. The score at the end of the first half was Ashland 10, Capital 25.

Ashland Outplays Opponents in Final Period

Ashland came back with a vim and vengeance in the second half and outplayed and outscored the visitors. Their advantage in this half was not great enough, however, to overcome their opponents' lead.

The Capital five did not get the large number of shots that they did in the first period and those shots that they did get were of a more hurried nature. The Purple cagers steadily gained on their opponents throughout the half. Ashland scored 10 points in this period to their opponents 8.

Neat passing and floor work was exhibited by both teams and the spectators generously applauded clever bits of play by members of both teams.

The two Ridenour brothers on the Columbus aggregation played a tip-top game for their team, scoring 23 out of their team's 33 points.

Lineup and Summary:

Ashland—20		Capital—33
Curry	rf	Schoman
McClintock	lf	Vern Ridenour
Hastings	c	V. Ridenour
Hoot	rg	Weagley
Baylor	lg	Klafter

Field Goals: Ashland, Curry 5, Hastings 1, Miller 2; Capital, Schofan 3, Vern Ridenour 6, V. Ridenour 4, Weagley 1, Klafter 1.

Foul Goals: Vern Ridenour 3; Curry 4.

Substitutions: Ashland, Miller for McClintock, Hastings for Miller, Wood for Hastings, Kellogg for Baylor, Baylor for Kellogg.

Referee: Oppelt, Otterbein.

DEAN MILLER PREACHING AT M. E. CHURCH

Dean Miller has been occupying the pulpit of the First Methodist Episcopal church of this city during the absence of the pastor, Dr. L. R. Akers. There is scarlet fever in the Akers family and he is quarantined.