

of the schools and the taxes for support of state institutions comes from our pockets. It is a case of taxation without representation. The students should have representation on the Board and have equal voice with the others.

College is dull. Academic freedom is suppressed and the college career is so many hours of boredom. The curriculum is filled with unrelated and quaint requirements. Students should have a voice in the requirements. There should be more practical work. Now it is a dehumanized and devitalized intellectual banquet causing intellectual dispepsy. The student is put thru mental gymnastics of measuring off his points for four years and receiving an E, G, or some other letter as a grade. It is impossible to so measure an individual's learning.

"Do you like moving pictures?"
"Absolutely not. I almost broke my neck hanging the darn things."

A DIFFERENT KIND

She: "What do you think of my new coat? Is it too thick?"

He (looking at her face): "I like the color, dear; but I'm afraid you really have got it on a little thick."

If S-I-O-U-X spells "soù,"
And E-Y-E spells "I,"
And S-I-G-H-E-D spells "side,"
I guess that's what I'd better do,
Commit Sioux-eye-sighed.

"It's all over now," said the co-ed as she finished powdering her face.
