

FUNNY BONE TICKLERS

KNOWLEDGE IS POWER

McGregor, a superintendent of a Sunday school in a small town, was running for the position of vice-president of a well-known local organization. His only opponent was McCarthy, a former bartender.

The day before the election friends of the latter strung across the main street of the town a large banner reading:

"Vote for McCarthy. What does McGregor know about vice?"

The surgeon plied his knife and saw,
His face lit with elation,
"Here's where I get," he said with glee,
"Some inside information."

The economic department wishes to call attention to the fact that umbrellas are more expensive on rainy days because on those days they go up.

Jever hear of Paul Revere,

The guy who warned a town?
He didn't have much on co-eds here
For spreading news around.

City Visitor—"Country people are very unconventional, eh what?"

Rural Inhabitant—"I don't git ye."
Vity Visitor—"I say you aren't bothered much with conventions."

Rural Inhabitant—"Wa-al no, but we do have a lodge meetin' onct a month."

Math Instructor (scratching his head)—
"Is this plain?"

Second Row—"No, it's solid."

AFTER CHAUCER

—a long way

Whan ata parte ina Soupen Fisha,
And slipp an oister from the cocktale

And it behaves very quite contrairy,
And landes inside yore veste, you still bee
merry.

Yore girrl mae not have sene the acci-

Or knows that you cud not the dede pre-

She may have one herself upon her lappie.
Which she will hide, and than bee very happie.

A professor at Law school is hindered by poor hearing. If a pupil mumbles along while reciting, he is apt to get by with very little preparation.

One of the class was called on, "Mr. O'Mahoney, state the next case, please." The luckless student was void of any knowledge on the subject but he had a copy of the Rocky Mountain News before him, so he read:—

"First inning—Ward tossed out Bancroft, going far to his left to get a mean bounder. Groh singled over second base. Frisch ahead of him, Young flied out. Kelly fouled out to Schang. Three runs, three hits, no errors."

"What you say is substantially correct, if you mean that the plaintiff's injunction should have been overruled," said the professor, presuming a good recitation.

Are you hungry, horsie?

No, I always have a bit in my mouth.
