A Wet One

"What is your idea of the tightest man in college?"

"The guy who won't take a shower because they soak you too much."

Garber declared are also bad habits which will, in the course of human events, be eliminated.

In conclusion he stated that "man has been bound hand and foot in a net work of out grown institutions and that the new psychology indicates a new promise in the way of human betterment."

GLEE CLUB CONCERT

this year. She has succeeded in securing a balance of voices and an almost perfect blending. This with a club of feminine voices is especially difficult as there is generally but three parts to be carried. To Ruth Beckley the talented accompanist appreciation must also be given for the asset that she has been to the organization, by way of the playing with the Club and her solo work.

This is the last formal entertainment that will be given this year. The Club will take part in the May Day festivities and will sing on other occasions however.

The program that was given at the home concert is printed below:
