

to go to college is a privilege which we are able to enjoy only through centuries of sacrifice and if we are not careful we are going to waste the accumulation of the race. "We should be careful lest we cast aside the very inheritance of the race," he said. "Let us be careful lest we, like the hunter, cast aside the gains which we ourselves and our ancestors have spent much time and energy in gaining," Prof. Wolford admonished in closing.

PROF. HAUN SPEAKS IN CHAPEL

"Students of Ashland College are responsible for the type of life produced in this institution," said R. R. Haun, Professor of Mathematics in a Chapel talk Monday morning, October 9.

"The Board of Trustees does not lay down the principles and standards of life here, neither does the Y. M. C. A. nor the Y. W. C. A. determine the type of life which Ashland College produces." Prof. Haun pointed out that the attitude towards a moral situation is determined by the attitude of the group as a whole. The group then should strive to make the life at Ashland College the highest and best possible.

Now, that's just the point—our fashionable clothes have such a fitting manner.
