

PHILOMATHLEAN

Philomathlean has prepared a program for the initial number that is expected to attract a large number of friends of the College as well as the students. The program will be rendered Thursday evening in the Philomathlean hall on the third floor of the Administration Building. The first program is comprised of seven numbers, five of which are given by the students and two by faculty members.

Every effort has been put forth to make this initial program of the greatest interest to the students. The program which was announced is given:

Saxophone Solo ..... Everett Teeter
Address of Welcome ..... George Walton
Vocal Solo ..... Harriet Becknell
Humorous Paper ..... Clayton Starn
Address ..... Prof. H. H. Wolford
Piano Solo ..... Miss Brauer
Descriptive Essay ..... Alma Schultz
Song—"Old College Home" ... Audience

The program for the following week has not been announced.

AN OLD STORY WITH NEW CHARACTERS

The annual dorm. snipe hunt which has been suspended for some years on account of non-secrecy was reinstated last Saturday under the sponsorship of Jack Wissinger. The hunt was relatively successful from the standpoint of the chasers. The man who held the sack arrived at the dorm in the course of a couple of hours.

The victim, it is said, was a well known ambitious engineer from the east.

HESPERIAN

Hesperian Literary Society has planned a representative program of reasonable length as the opening effort of the organization which is to present its initial program Friday evening at 7:30 in Hesperian Hall. The following program has been worked out by the program committee:

Prelude ..... Miss Crofford
Address of Welcome ..... Mr. Cashman
Reading ..... Miss Kendig
Paper ..... Mr. Reed
Vocal Solo ..... Miss Johns
Humorosity ..... Mr. Mayes
Trio ..... Misses Price, Crofford, Lichty

The second program at which a debate was planned has to be postponed on account of so much work with which the contestants are swamped at the present time. However, it has only been postponed and in the near future it is hoped that circumstances will permit the presentation of the polite argument to the public. A program of individual literary efforts will be substituted for the debate at the regular meeting next week.

DELOZIER'S TALK TITILLATES STUDENTS

Prof. DeLozier gave a rollicking talk at Chapel Wednesday. His subject was the peculiarities of human speech and he drew numerous examples of the humorous use of idioms in the English language.

DeLozier called attention to similarity of the idioms of English and the idioms of the Romance languages. He said that he was particularly anxious to dispel the common illusion that idioms were not good English and that he considered the idiom as a beautiful and compact vehicle of thought.

Y. M. Increases Activities

The Y. M. C. A. thru the Extension Department is extending its work this year into many new avenues. The Gospel Team aspect will be continued again this year and the men are going into camp Monday preparatory to go out on the fields. A very unique training camp has been planned for this year. The men are very enthusiastic over the work. An extended tour of a month and covering a complete District Conference of the Brethren church will be made in December and January.

This department is endeavoring to supply pulpits that are vacant temporary and while pastors are away. As the calls come in the available men will be sent out to meet this pressing need of the denomination and also other denominations.

The Hi-Y work will be started this year and also some definite opportunity for mission work will be made possible before the year has passed.

SECOND SING HELD

Many students gathered on the front Campus Friday night before Saturday's football game with Mount Union, for a pep meeting and college sing.

Several Professors spoke, calling attention to the progress in football the College has made in recent years.

"Diz" Walton led the singing of popular and College songs which served to make the occasion more inspiring.

Enthusiasm and ginger lagged, however, because the hearts of the students were sad on account of the critical condition of Sam Wileox. Sam is in the hospital in Pittsburgh very seriously ill.

Because it was fitting and proper, all paused a few moments in silent prayer for Sam. Florizel Pfeiderer then further led the anxious group in prayer for the recovery of Ashland's former fullback.
