

EDITORS

(Continued from page 2)

Dear Editor,

In response to the article, In Heaven There is No Beer, written by Professor W.H. Miley, I respectfully state, Dear Professor Miley, Prohibition is over!

Sincerely,
Jeff Bolton

By TWINK SULLIVAN

October 18th the ADPi pledges had their Big and Little Sis ceremony. The pledges sold carnations for Sweetest day.

The ADPi volleyball team took second place in intramurals October 18.

Saturday the Phi Mus are having a Halloween party.

The Delta Sigmas are having their Debonair Ball Saturday.

The Alpha Phis and the Phi Psis have a mixer scheduled for Tuesday night.

The DZs are having a Halloween party Wednesday.

The Phi Deltis won first place in the fraternity division for house homecoming decorations. In the sorority competition, the Alpha Phis placed first.

Recently chosen pledges of the Kappa Sigma Little Sis chapter are: Ann Arter, June Bailes, Debbie Czardivich, Kathy Day, Lynne Englehart, Lani Gilliland, Peggy Jackson, Aileen Kane, Sara Kiefer, Anne Landis, Kathy Lemp, Dianne Leonard, Lynn Mariotti, Sally Marsh, Liz Olson, Meg Perry, Mary Potondi, Jan Reineck, Trish Roesch, Judy Sanford, Marion Scarazzo, Paula Seeman, Judy Sutherin, Kathy Tarantino, Liz Tarpy, Betty Terick, Ginny Thompson, Debbie Todd, Amy VanVoochis, Shelly Varns, Vicki Walter, Karen Werner, Pam Wirth, Susan Culstrom, Kathy Keller and Kathy Kindt.

Clubs' goals include jogs and prejudice

Marty Duff, student senate president, announced that two new organizations were granted charters.

The first group is the AC Equal Opportunity Organization. The students responsible for its creation were Audrey Popil and Mary Potondi. The purpose of the group is to insure equal opportunity, equal publicity, and equal pay to all members of the college community. This organization provides a means to voice discriminations and complaints. They will take action to alleviate problems brought to their attention in these areas.

The second newly found organization is Campus Joggers. As it suggests, this group concerns itself with recreational jogging. Anyone who would like to join should contact Dave Oser.

Impressions of being lavaliered

To Whom It May Concern:

SPADARO AND HUDSON LAVALIERED

couple interviewed by: Auntie Evie Teevee

James John Spadaro (Spud, Clayton Hall) of Ellenville, New York and Prudence Cary Hudson (Prudy, Amstutz Hall) of Buffalo, New York were lavaliered on September 23. The date was hand picked by Ann Sharer (Amstutz) of Doylestown, Pa.

1—Auntie Evie Teevee: Why did you decide to get lavaliered?

Prudy — James and I have been talking about our special relationship for quite a while. Being lavaliered seemed like a special thing that we wanted to do at the right time.

Spud's remark — That girl sure does have a way of getting right to the point.

2—Auntie Evie Teevee: To each of you, what does being lavaliered mean?

Spud — Ever since I was a freshman I didn't quite know what being lavaliered meant when I read it in the Collegian. But I did know it was far better for the girls than the guys. Now it seems I've gone under and lavaliered means to me: that I have found a girl who is very different, one I don't want to share and it is a way of showing people that I'm very happy being able to say "she's mine."

Prudy's remark — It's more than being lavaliered, it's who I'm lavaliered to and it means that we as a couple are very happy and thinking towards the future.

3—Auntie Evie Teevee: Do you feel that this will surprise or shock your friends and family?

Spud — Well, if it shocked me, can you bet it will shock my friends and family. (Note: He says that his mother will find it very cute and that his room-mate will move out very fast.)

Prudy's remark — Surprised? Yes. Shocked? No. But most important — happy.

4—Auntie Evie Teevee: Now that you are lavaliered do you think it will make any difference in the relationship?

Spud — Speaking from the male point of view, for her I feel it will make her feel a little more secure.

Prudy's remark — For myself, a little more scared and careful. I can't see where it would drastically change our relationship, just the way people react to it.

5—Auntie Evie Teevee: For my last two questions, I'd like to ask each of you a personal question. For Spud, why did you decide on Prudence Hudson?

Spud — Our relation got started in a unique way. I was going out with a very nice girl, kind of strong. I met Prudy and we became what is known as a "talking gig." But as time went on, we grew, on the inside as well as the outside. I suppose some people might feel it was by chance, pressure, or boredom, but in reality, it was by my very good luck. And as the song says "she's one of a kind".

6—Auntie Evie Teevee: I suppose all women would like to be lavaliered, but what do you think the outcome would have been if you had refused?

Prudy — Well, to tell you the truth I think James knew I would jump at the chance. I think that we are at a point that we have a mutual understanding of each other's feelings. A refusal just didn't cross my mind.

Auntie Evie Teevee: I would like to say in closing that it was very interesting to find how two AC students felt about being lavaliered. I hope it lasts. Look out Kids, I may interview you next. So you better have some good reasons for getting lavaliered and not just letting it be "the thing to do"!

This interview was conducted on September 18, 1973 on Tuesday from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. (in a very intimate setting). Signed

Auntie Evie Teevee

Names new justices

Justices for the senate judicial board were chosen recently by the judicial screening board. This board was composed of Dr. Ray Johns and Bill Johnston, representing administration and faculty, and Jeff Brancje, Peg Downing, Chris Leuthold, and Debbie Bailey, students.

In order to select these justices, comparison interviews were conducted. There were 30 applicants for the 15 vacant positions.

Student members that were chosen are: Greg Reed, Debbie Czarevich, Elizabeth Lehman, Denise Jennings, Rich Fumich, Bob Harris, Jim Corbett, Elaine Grant, Lee Wenchell, Narda Schaeffer, Gilbert Givinnup, Lance Burghardt, Pete Weitsman, Mike Davis, and Bob Kopp.

The administrator for student senate judicial board is Arthur Gorusch. Faculty members are Margery McBurney and Virginia Jenkins.

Myers
for the finest in drycleaning
and laundering

Team up with
MYERS
for sparkle and snap

Myers
LAUNDERS
CLEANERS
ASHLAND
500 E. Main St. / Ph. 323 1533

This Is It Nov. 1

Thursday

Threads Liberated Will Close For Good

We Have To Sell EVERYTHING

IF YOU MISSED US WEDNESDAY AT THE STUDENT UNION

— HURRY ON DOWN!

- ✓ SHIRTS
- ✓ BAGGIES
- ✓ INCENSE
- ✓ LADLUBBER FLARES
- ✓ CANDLES
- ✓ POSTERS
- ✓ PATCHES

THREADS
LIBERATED

Claremont Avenue