

STUDENT RELIEF DELEGATES REPORT TO Y. W.

At the regular meeting of the Y. W. C. A. last Tuesday evening reports of the delegates to the Student Relief Conference were read before the society. These reports were made by Misses Becknell and Fuller. The main report of the delegation was made by Miss Fuller in which she told of the Student Relief work and its world-wide scope. She pointed out that if Europe is not helped, it will go back to the condition of the middle ages. She said that the Europeans need our help. "We have much and should be thankful enough to help others," she said. Miss Becknell's talk was more on the experiences of the trip to the conference.

Miss Becknell led the devotions and Miss Crofford sang a solo prelude.

Miss Rutt in a short talk, told of the starving conditions in Armenia. Her talk served to remind the girls of the many comforts that they are enjoying.

The next meeting will be held in co-operation with the Y. M. C. A. Dr. Akers of the Methodist church will speak.

BOARDMANS LEAVE FOR ARGENTINE

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Boardman, Jr., left Saturday, October 21 for the mission field in South America. The farewell service was held for them Sunday, October 14, at the First Brethren church in Philadelphia.

Rev. Boardman is a graduate of Ashland College and he and Mrs. Boardman carry with them the best wishes of their many friends here.

SOCIETY

Both the Philomathean and Hesperian Literary Societies will present the programs which were to have been given last Friday but were postponed because of the festivities of the Home Coming Day. The societies will begin at the usual time, 7 o'clock.

It is not customary for the literary societies to suspend their programs for athletic contests and other activities, but upon this occasion the event merited the postponement of the programs.

FROSH HIKE, EAT, YELL, SING, AND WALK HOME

The freshmen, having a superabundance of surplus energy to work off and being tired of meals that other people cook, hiked to Mohn's woods for a wiener roast last Thursday evening. Here they roasted wieners and other reptiles over a fire.

The unsophisticated neophytes enjoyed their supper immensely although some admitted that they would have gone on a hunger strike if wieners burned as bad as those were burned would have been served to them under normal conditions. After the eats, "Milt" Puterbaugh talked to them a while and then the remainder of the time was spent in practice for the yells which were given in Chapel the next morning.

MRS. STEELE TO READ FOR FRIDAY CLUB

Mrs. Steele, the elocution instructor at the College will read a play, "Romance" by Sheldon at the home of Miss Belle Osborne before the Friday Club this Friday.

Frosh Girls Receive Initiation

The students from the town were shocked by the appearance of 19 weird figures on the Campus Wednesday morning. After careful investigation, it was found that the girls had initiated the freshmen the preceding night. The boys of the dorm needed no herald to tell them of the appearance of the characters on the campus for the wild agonizing shrieks of the neophytes in mortal terror had awakened them from their peaceful slumbers the night before.

Between the hours of eleven and two, the frosh lived at least 13 years. The horrors that they faced cannot be enumerated in these columns. Altho, Dr. Jacobs is at the present time in Gratis, Ohio, the girls had the privilege of shaking his hand. After they had enjoyed this privilege, they were taken on a trip to the Nile Valley, where they unearthed the remains of Cleopatra, one piece at a time. They were forced to endure the Summer sault, the Rocky Road to Dublin and the Hospital but none of these compared to the Hocking Valley Special which was the feature of the evening.

But alas, the misery did not end here. Poor Frosh. Against their wills, they were forced to arise and come to the dining room for breakfast. During the day, they were forced to wear long skirts (which is now the style) comb their hair washer woman style (O Horrors, they had to wash their ears), turn a complete About Face every five steps (a stimulant for headache), wear Pacifiers, (quite appropriate) and wear green bibs. They were admonished to eat with their knives, eat over the backs of their chairs and a hundred and one other things too numerous to mention.

The initiation was clean from all points of view and the girls took the consequences with a good natured smile. Remember, Frosh, you get a whack at it next year.

Mark Twain was called upon to speak at a club, and took for his subject, "Honesty." He said that when he was a boy at home he one day saw a cart of melons. He was a boy, and tempted, besides he liked melons.

"I sneaked up to that cart," said Mark, "and stole a melon. I went into the alley to devour it. But—I did no sooner set my teeth into it than I paused; a strange feeling came over me. I came to a quick conclusion. Firmly, I walked up to that cart, replaced the melon and took a ripe one."
