

your chair, there isn't room between chairs for two of you! don't park your gum on your plate, you might mistake it for a bite of meat and swallow it; don't dip your toast in your coffee or cocoa, there is many a slip between the cup and the mouth; don't mix your food on your plate, that's what your stomach is for; keep your spoon out of your cup, you might run it in your eye.

The suggestion of the girls is that the boys might also profit by these few suggestions.

There are hermit souls that live withdrawn
In the plan of their self-content;
There are souls like stars, that dwell apart
In a fellowless firmament;
There are pioneer souls that blaze their path
Where highways never ran.
Let me live in a house by the side of the road
And be a friend to man.—Foss.
