Description:

A fine three story brick house (originally a double house?) with two chimney stacks in each end wall rising above tall hipped roof. Brick cornice on all four sides. Six short windows on front third floor and second and third floor N end wall; taller six windows across second floor front; all with 6/6 sash.

First floor has been rebuilt, closing up one window in both the front and North end walls and adding a good storefront of c. 1880-90 with plate glass windows at NW corner and across 2/3s of front. Facade is divided by inset doorway with Victorian oak door. A doorway to top floors is at front S corner. Rear has two corner doors with four windows between first floor, six on second and third. Added rear deck to second floor is triangular in plan.
