Dear Mother

Again I find myself seated to write a few lines to inform you that I am still alive & well and harty and I hope these few lines will find you the same, we are still at Chattanooga yet and are likely to [] I think. the word has ben that the Regular Brigade was a going North but I guess it is all knocked in the head. we are a geting a little more to eat now than we did a week or too ago, the boys had to suffer very much for a while but now there is plenty

I am verry sorry to say but I will have to that Poor Gill is out of his troubles and pains. Poor fellow, he got along so well at first and now he is dead,

Where is nate and sindy. I have not heard a word of them in a long time. has Brian and Matt keeping house now? And how doe Uncle Charleses Folkes get along and where is Pete. I have not heard from him in some time. When you see Gemma Liny [?] tell her I saw Tyley [?]Carpenter the Other day he says he is a comming back if nothing splits more then is crack he is a coming back after her.

Is Frank Bishop at home this winter I have wrote to him often enough that I should think he might answer. And Matt too Why dont she write and let me know where the 12th Michigan Regiment is the word is now that the 11 Ill.s is a comming up here to help us. I hope they will for I would like to see some of them. And where is the 89th Uncle Elie And all the rest! &c &c &c

I guess I will have to bring my letter to a close for it is after bed time so goodnight to you all Please write soon and oblige your son
