

Mr. E B Gaston,
Secy. Fair Hope Colony,
Battles Ala.

Dear Sir,

I submit herewith an abstract of the records of Baldwin County as to the certain lands agreed on by us to be looked up.

If I were you I would get a quit claim from Bromberg, atty in fact. of Bowen Dist. and also one from the reps. of Sandford. It would a hard matter for either party, I think, to maintain a suit of ejectment.

As to the NE of SE 1/4 I can find nothing whatever of record. The plat book shows however that it has been taken up, but by whom or when is not shown. I will write Commr. of Land Office about it. The NW 1/4 of SE 1/4 cannot be traced further than Flagg & Crocker, as shown.

As to the map, - the names put down don't show the owners in every instance - but the claimants as far as I can learn.

If you find anything not clear, write me and I will be pleased to answer.

Very Truly
Geo H Hoyle.

This is to certify that Marshall Gully (Bayou of the Dunlap lands, the <sup>legal</sup> title to which I think is good.
