

Humboldt National Forest Supervisor Roll Call

History – The Humboldt National Forest is located in northeastern Nevada and was created when Ruby Mountain National Forest combined with Independence National Forest in 1908. Since 1995, it has been administratively combined with Toiyabe National Forest, though the two remain legally and geographically distinct. The forest is subdivided into three ranger districts: Ely, Mountain City-Ruby Mountains-Jarbridge, and Santa Rosa.

Forest Supervisors

Humboldt National Forest (1908 – 1994)

C. S. “Syd” Tremewan	1908 – 1913
S. B. Arthur	1913 – 1916
Vernon Metcalf	1916 – 1917
C. E. Favre	1917 – 1923
Alexander McQueen	1923 – 1938
A. Torgerson	1938 – 1957
Louis A. Dremolski	1957 – 1961
W. L. Hansen	1961 – 1965
Bob Rowen	1965 – 1970
Vern L. Thompson	1970 – 1977
John Hafterson	1977 – 1980
B. J. Graves	1980 – 1988
John P. Inman	1989 – 1994

Nevada National Forest (1909 - 1957)

[In 1957, Nevada N.F. was split between Humboldt and Toiyabe National Forests.]

Royal Mathias	1909 - ?
George C. Thompson	1912 – 1916
Fred L. Mott	1917 – 1919
Alexander McQueen	1918 – 1923
C. A. Beam	1923 – 1931
Chester J. Owen	1932 – 1934
George Larson	1934 – 1938
A. E. Briggs	1939 – 1945
John Hurbert	1946 – 1948
John Parker	1949 – 1952
Louis A. Dremolski	1954 – 1957

Humboldt-Toiyabe National Forest (1995 – Present)

Jim Nelson	1995 – 1998
Bert Kulesza	1998
Gloria Flora	1998 – 1999
Robert L. “Bob” Vaught	2000 – 2006
Ed Monnig	2006 – 2009
Jeanne Higgins	2010 – 2012
William “Bill” Dunkelberger	2012 – Present

Deputy Forest Supervisors

Mary Wagner	1995 – 2000
Karen Shimamoto	2000 – 2004
Ed Monnig	2004 – 2006
Stephanie Phillips	2006 – 2014
Genevieve Masters	2013 – 2015
Jack Isaacs	2016 – 2020
Teresa McClung	2018 – 2020
Cheva Gabor	2020
Jon Stansfield	2020 – Present