

Pacific Northwest Research Station

History: The station was officially founded in 1925 as the Pacific Northwest Forest and Range Experiment Station, but Forest Service research in the region began in 1913 at Wind River, Washington.

Organization: The Station is located in Portland, Oregon with 11 laboratories and research centers in Alaska, Oregon, and Washington as well as 12 active experimental forests, ranges, and watersheds.

Station Directors

Thorton T. Munger	1924-1939
Stephen N. Wyckoff	1939-1945
J. Alfred Hall	1945-1951
Robert W. Colin	1951-1963
Philip Briegleb	1963-1971
Robert E. Buckman	1971-1975
Robert F. Tarrant	1975-1979
Robert L. Ethington	1979-1987
Charles W. Philpot	1987-1995
Thomas J. Mills	1995-2002
Thomas M. Quigley	2002-2006
Bov B. Eav	2006-2012
Robert D. Mangold	2013-2016
Paul D. Anderson	2017-Present