The Fireplace Inn

Supper Club

“Oopa!” (Greek for Hello! Cheers! Good Health! Etc.) With this, you begin to realize that the true gourmet experience is alive and thriving in our area at the Fireplace Inn Supper Club in Manitowish Waters. Nick and Honey Greven offer further proof of this with a spectrum of choices in Greek, French and Italian dishes.

Grecian specialties provide the gourmet with variations on chicken, pork and lamb: a half chicken broiled in herbs, spices and lemons; eight-ounce pork chops, bone-in, boneless or stuffed, broiled and prepared in special Greek seasonings and served with lemon; and lamb chops broiled Greek style in special herbs and spices, served with lemon and mint jelly. A special roast leg of baby spring lamb is offered each Saturday and Sunday.

French gourmet dishes include a very popular Steak Au Poivre (medallions of filet mignon rolled in cracked peppercorn and covered with Dijon mustard and cognac sauce); Coq au Vin; Tournedos of Beef; and an exceptional combination of shrimp, scallops and fettuccine. A special rack of lamb is served nightly as well.

Other choices from a concise but ambitious menu include Nick's own hickory smoked back ribs, regular or Greek style; a host of seafood items, and on Friday, walleye pike presented in six different versions.

Fork-tender steaks are all certified Angus Beef, freshly cut and broiled, charbroiled or prepared Greek style. This beef requires the certification of any restaurateur serving it, in accordance with the Angus Beef Association, assuring you of juicy, flavorful steak every time, every bite. Try the filet mignon, blue cheese filet, New York strip, ribeye or porterhouse and enjoy, as the menu suggests, "The finest beef served anywhere in the world."

The Fireplace Inn Supper Club is located on Tower Road as it joins Highway W in Manitowish Waters, Wisconsin. The full-bar lounge opens at 4:30 p.m.; dinner is served from 5 p.m. until 9:30 p.m. nightly except Tuesdays.
