I suspect a misprint or mistranslatio

Gideon Senecal came to Oregon from Canada in 1842. His farm on French Prairie was a few miles north of Gervais. He went to "Oak Grove" (Wapinitia) in 1180, settling on Fifteen Mile Creek. (from Munnick). Gideon's youngest daughter, Emma, says (in September, 1968), "Papa lived on Juniper Flat (Wapinitia) and moved to Dufur (Fifteen Mile Creek), actually Rail Hollow near the town of Dufur, about 1884 - they tell me I was a baby at the time of the move and cried all the way in the wagon".

Gideon died: 10 June, 1894; Rail Hollow, near Dufur, Oregon
(this date from Lucille Beauvais, dau. of Emma)

(From Munnick) "He took strychnine and died quickly. He said he wished to die. The old man had suffered considerably from rheumatism of late, and being 84 years old, he probably spoke truly when he said he was tired of life. His wife, two sons, and a daughter were present (at the dinner table). He left a number of sons and daughters, all grown, several of whom reside in Wasco County near Dufur." (Quotes from a clipping in a scrapbook.)

Lucille Ducharme died: 11 February, 1895; Rail Hollow, near Dufur, Ore.

We deduce Marie from the above record. The evidence is not conclusive, but this child probably was born, privately baptized and died on or about the 20th of August, 1845

Descendants of Gideon say," 6 children by the first wife all died before adulthood." Gideon's 2 youngest daughters, living in 1968, say, "the first wife and all the children but one daughter died of dyptheria after the gold rush".

We will probably find out more about the children of Gideon's first marriage.

Marie Anne Grenier died: 25 March, 1850

Gideon Senecal m. II. Lucie (Lucille) Ducharme

"B-263. Lucie Ducharme, June 28, 1840. Lucie Ducharme, aged 4 yrs. Natural daughter of J. B. Ducharme and a woman of the Flathead Nation. Godfather, Louis Forcier, godmother, Catherine Russie. s/ F.N.B."
p. 289, "Mantle"

Marriage of Jean Baptiste Ducharme which gives his parentage: "M-5. Jean Baptiste Ducharme & Catherine Ha, July 26, 1841. Jean Baptiste Ducharme, eldest son of Francois Ducharme and Robillard of Berthier, Canada, and Catherine Ha, daughter of Paul Ha, Canadian and a woman of the Pend Oreille Nation. Witnesses, Jean Baptiste Aubichon, Jean Baptiste Dubreuil. s/ F.N.B.".
p. 291, "Mantle"

I have not seen a record of the marriage of Gideon & Lucille. However, on the page (xerox) recording the birth of Pierre Dellars, Jr. (son of Pierre Delard & Josephte La Pierre), the last entry reads: "6 B. Esther Ducharme. The 6 May, 1851, we the undersigned missionary priest have baptized Esther, born the 4 of the current month of the legitimate marriage of Baptiste Ducharme and of Catherine Paul. Godfather, Gedeon Senecal, godmother, Lucille Ducharme. s/ L. A. LeBas". I would deduce from this that Gideon and Lucille were married, and stood godparents to Lucille's baby half-sister.

Children of Gideon & Lucille: that are known from records. There are, no doubt, several other children.

Thais (dau.) who married Pierre Lucier, son of ~~Catherine Delard~~ & ~~Jean Baptiste Lucier (Gardipie)~~
I have no dates on Thais - she could be a daughter of Gideon and his first wife, Marie Anne Grenier.

Josephte Nouite and Etienne Lucier

Marcel: "B-30. Marcel Joseph Senecal, Sept. 20, 1855. Marcel Joseph, born Sept. 7, son of Gideon Senecal and Lucile Ducharme, Godfather, Joseph Rigail, godmother, Rose Bicornet. s/ D."
p. 327, "Mantle"

Basilesse (dau.)
From xerox records, filed with Catherine Delard, dau. of Joseph: " B-40. Basilisse Senecal. The 12 December, 1858, we the under signed priest of St. Louis have baptized Basilisse, born the 28 November of the legitimate marriage of Gedeon Senecal and of Lucile Ducharme, inhabitants of this parish. Godfather, Laurence Laurent, godmother, Marie Ducharme, who have not signed. s/ B. Delorme, V.G."

The death of Basilesse : xerox record filed with Josephine Dellard (dau. of Basile Delard and Rose Poirier): "S-2. Basilesse Senecal. The 14 Feb., 1860, we the undersigned priest of St. Louis have buried Basilesse, daughter of the legitimate marriage of Gedeon Senecal and of Lucile Ducharme of this parish, died two days ago, aged about 1 year and 4 months. Present, Pierre Gauthier and Ambroise Gagnon who have not signed. s/ B. Delorme, V.G."

Alfrède (son)
From xerox records, filed with Eleanore Vendal, dau. of Louis Vendal & Marie Anne Dellard (dau. of Joseph)
"B-29. Alfrede Senecal. The 18 November, 1860 we the undersigned priest have baptized Alfrede born the 16 of this month of the legitimate marriage of Gedeon Senecal and of Lucie Ducharme, the Godfather Francois Lefebre, the godmother, Adelaide Rivet, who have not signed. s/ L. A. LeBas"

(Note: Adelaide Rivet is "Blind Grandma" - Pierre Delard's second wife)

Pauline (daw)
From xerox records filed with Sarah Elsina Senecal (dau. of Marcel Senecal & Marianne Delore, dau. of Pierre) (St. Peter's Church Records, The Dalles, Oregon)
" B-41. Paulina Senecal (Oak Grove). Year 1880, the 14 October, I the undersigned priest of the parish of St. Peter, The Dalles, have baptized Paulina Senecal, born the 15 July of the legal marriage of Gedeone Senecal and of Lucia Senecal. Godparents were Mose Delor and Agnes Delor. s/ L Gaudon"

Emma (dau.)
A note from Dorris Weddle would indicate Gideon and Lucille had a daughter younger than Pauline: "Mother (Jenny Jackson) and Ora both remember Pauline and Emma, Marcel Senecal's sisters when they visited Uncle Marcel and Aunt Mary (Mary Anne Delore) around 1900. Pauline was a young lady and Emma a young girl, possibly a few years older than Ora (Ora b. 1893)".

Marcellina (dau)
I have no dates on this one. Emily Vandale (dau. of Jean Baptiste Vandale & Clementine LaChapelle) writes: "Marcellina & Vital were brother and sister of Marcel Senecal". Marcellina must have been born in the early 1850's. She appears as a godmother on the xerox page of Theodule Foisy in 1868; and she married Jean Baptiste Vandale (his first wife) probably about ~~1870?~~ 1867/8 ?

Vital (son)
Again no dates. Emily's comments above apply here. I would suspect he was one of the younger children. He married Emily's oldest sister, Agnes and you'll find Agnes and Vital as godparents on the xerox page of Emily's baptism.

Gideon died: sometime in 1896 (exact date missing)

Notes from Harriet Munnick: " His farm on French Prairie is a few miles north of Gervais and the Foisy holdings. He went to "Oak Grove" (Wapinitia) in 1880, settling on Fifteen Mile Creek. He took strychnine and died quickly. Clipping from a scrap book: 'He said he wished to die. The old man had suffered considerably from rheumatism of late, and being 84 years old, he probably spoke truly when he said he was tired of life. His wife, two sons, and a daughter were present (at the dinner table). He left a number of sons and daughters, all grown, several of whom reside in Wasco County near Dufur'. "

" ... will say Dedron Senecal is buried at Kingsley, a little town near Dufur." This from a letter from Annie Quin 2nd wife of George Senecal, who was Gideon's grandson and son of Marcel Senecal & Mary Anne Delore.

Lucille Ducharme evidently died sometime after Gideon.

Pierre Lucier

b. 1842 d. 1920's (?) Missoula, Montana

Son of: Etienne Lucier
Marie Marguerite Tchinouk (2nd wife of Etienne Lucier)

Do not confuse this Pierre Lucier with the Pierre Lucier b. 1845, son of Jean Baptiste Lucier & Catherine Delard)

Married: Thais Senecal
dau. of: Gideon Senecal & 1st wife Marie Anne Grenier
OR 2nd wife: Lucille Ducharme

m. 1871

From Harriet Munnick: "Pierre, son of Etienne, is well remembered by all the older people of St. Paul, and many are the stories they tell. I used to pass his old house, perched on the edge of a gully, where it had probably been moved to clear the site, just south of the old home place on the river. I always meant to take a picture of it, but delayed too long. A little farther up the gully was the shack of his brother Etienne (Etienne II b. 1844, d. 1920 Salem, Ore.) (Steve), who never married, and whose picture shows a typical droop-eyed metis, one-armed and indolent, with his little dog, Bismark. These two were sons of Etienne I and his second wife, Marie Marguerite, who was no prize, it appears. I won't go into all those old stories, but merely relate the two or three that etch the scene most vividly.

Seguin, the Alcoholic, speaking, who is, nevertheless a pretty good conversationalist: ' I used to know old Grandpa Pete well, sure! Many's the night I played cards at his house. He was an old man, had lots of kids. I knew 'em all - Charlie, Frank, Rose - there were more. He moved to the reserve, I guess; I think his wife was dead by that time.'

George, speaking, who lived adjacent to the original Lucier farm, or overlapping it: 'I used to work threshing down at Pete's place when I was a boy. He was as wide as he was high; he sat in the yard with a sack of Bull Durham in one hand, rolling cigarettes, one after another; used to say he couldn't live if he couldn't smoke. I remember once we were just starting to town when old Pierre Lucier came driving down in a cart; he filled the seat he was so wide. He said he wanted to find a certain gravel bar in the river where he used to go swimming when he was a boy. I guess he found it. When we came back, he was splashing around like a porpoise in the river.'

Felix, speaking, a sort of a nephew: ' Steve (Etiennê II above) didn't lose his arm the way that man said! He wouldn't have been out hunting anything, unless it was a pig to get a bit of bacon.

I was right here, and I know right where he was when he shot it off. He laid his gun on a log, and started to climb over when he shot it off. It was shot clean off, just hanging by the hide, and his brother Pete, he took a butcher knife and cut it off. Didn't go to the doctor; Pete just tied it up so he wouldn't bleed to death - clean shot like that, it healed all right."

Pierre's wife, Thais, died 24 July, 1918 at St. Louis, Oregon. Pierre went to the reservation in Missoula, Montana, where he died.

Further notes from Harriet Munnick: "Marie Margurite was forever embroiled in some legal action after Etienne I's death - divorce from her current husband, debts at the store, suits against Foisy and Gideon Senecal and what not. Pierre loved her, however, and was distressed when a wave of grave searching began after some discoveries at Champoeg. "Don't let anyone dig in my mother's grave", he cautioned the owner of the old farm. Her grave was unmarked and is now unknown. When a new bridge was put across the Willamette a few years ago, the long approach seemed to aim straight across the general site "by the fence where the orchard had been", so I sallied out t o hail one of the dozers and told the man that if he came across any bones to let me know and I'd see that they were moved. His repy was, "Lady, if I come across any bones, I'll be heading in the other direction! " "

Note by Mikell de Lores Wormell; As of this date, 11 Dec., 1966, only my notebook and the notebooks of Harriet Munnick have copies of these two pages of Pierre Lucier (son of Etienne). Sometime in future, when it no longer matters to those who now might be offended or hurt by this material, I hope copies of these two pages might be made and incorporated in the two books which belong to the descendants of Etienne Lucier: Andrew Bernard, Jr. of Paulina, Oregon and Mrs. John Pryse (Joyce Bernard) of John Day, Oregon. The mother of Andrew, Jr. and Joyce is Emily Lucia Vandale - Emily's grandmother, Adrienne Lucier was half- sister to the men talked of in these two pages. Forgive me if I speak to those in the future - I have so often wished, in my searching to find anything, good, bad, scandalous - to put flesh on the bones of names and dates.

Louis Alfred Lucier

b. 11 April, 1885; St. Louis, Oregon (from newspaper clipping)

Son of: Pierre Lucier
Thaïs Sénécal

Married: (Seems not to have, judging from relatives listed in obit.)

Died: 15 February, 1948; Polson, Oregon (near Lakeview)

Alfred Lucier

Louis Alfred Lucier was born at St. Louis, Oregon, April 11, 1885, and passed away Feb. 15, 1948.

He was a decendant of an Oregon pioneer family, his grandfather having helped make the bricks for the beautiful church at St. Paul, the first Catholic church established in Oregon.

With his mother, two sisters, and two brothers, Alfred came to Polson in 1914, arriving April 30, where he has since made his home.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Lucier, and three brothers, two of whom, Charlie and Frank, were well known in Polson.

Four years ago, due to ill health, he retired from farming, and sold their place to Bill Jensen. With his two sisters and an uncle, all of whom were in poor health, he moved to the Ted Moss place, where the family still resides.

Sunday morning he did his usual chores, and seemed very happy and cheerful. Around 9 o'clock he went to the creek for a couple pails of water, and there was found by his sister, Mary, a few minutes later. Death had come from a heart attack.

Sheriff Beaudry was notified and he, with Earl Farrell, came with the ambulance and took the body to Polson.

Neighbors, hearing of the sad news, gathered quickly, and a nepnew, Bud Beauvais, and wife, of Ronan, hastened to the home.

Funeral services were held on Wednesday morning at 8:30 o'clock at the Catholic church, Fr. Kennedy in charge.

Pallbearers were Charlie Greiner, Harold Guinn, Basil Ducharme, Ray Fulkerson, Guy Farnham and Ellison Mitchell.

Due to the hazardous condition of the road from Polson to the Catholic cemetery, at this time of the year, temporary interment will be in the Lakeview cemetery.

He leaves to mourn his loss two sisters, Miss Rose Lucier and Mrs. Mary Beauvais; an uncle, Joe Senecal at the home; three nephews with their families, Bud Beauvais of Ronan, Albert Beauvais of Vancouver, Wn., and Alexander Beauvais, of Portland, Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Beauvais, Mrs. Earl McLeod and Joe Neumann of Vancouver, Wn., and Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Beauvais and son of Portland arrived Monday to be with the family and to be present for the funeral.

Marcel's biography in "History of Central Oregon"

"MARCELL SENECAL, a native of Oregon, has passed his entire life in the territory embraced in this state. He is now residing four and one-half miles north of Suplee, in Crook county, where he follows stock raising and farming. Mr. Senecal was born in Marion County, on September 5, 1855. Dedron Senecal, his father, was a native of Canada, his birth place being near Montreal and he comes from French extraction. In early life he was associated with the Hudson's Bay Company and when a young man came on west to what is now Oregon. He was a trapper for that company for years and was all over Oregon before there were any settlers here. He finally took a donation claim on what is now French prairie, in the Willamette valley, the point first settled in Oregon. There he remained until 1876 in which year he moved to Wasco county, which was his home until his death. His entire life was spent on the frontier and as a brave adventurer he was a decided success. He married Lucy Cushart, who was born in Marion county, Oregon. Her father also was one of the employes of the Hudson's Bay Company. Our subject remained in Marion county until he was eighteen years of age, when he came east of the mountains to Wasco county. He selected a ranch, married and lived there until 1900 in which year he came to his present location. He has a good farm and is doing well in farming and stock raising.

It was 1874, that Mr. Senecal married Mary Delore, a native of Marion county, Oregon. Her father, Peter Delore was also a pioneer of Oregon and married Lizzie Depree. Mr. and Mrs. Senecal have two children, George and Albert G."

He is now residing four and one-half miles north of Suplee, in Crook county, where he follows stock raising and farming. Mr. Senecal was born in Marion County, on September 5, 1855. In earlylife he was associated with the Hudson's Bay Company and when a young man came on west to what is now Oregon. He was a trapper for that company for years and was all over Oregon before there were any settlers here. He finally took a donation claim on what is now French prairie in the Willamette valley, the point first settled in Oregon. There he remained until 1876 in which year he moved to Wasco county, which was his home until his death. His entire life was spent on the frontier and as a brave adventurer he was a decided success. He married Lucy Cushart, who was born in Marion county, Oregon. Her father also was one of the employes of the Hudson's Bay Company. Our subject remained in Marion county until he was eighteen years of age, when he came east of the mountains to Wasco county. b. 9 November, 1868; St. Louis parish, Marion Co., Oregon

p. 211, St. Louis parish records: "B 30. Remy Senecal. Godfather Mr. Bouteiller; Godmother: Madame Bouteiller.

G.C. Thibau, pr."

As you see, 1866, is written in the above entry, but a glance at the enclosed xerox of the record shows it on a page clearly labled "1868", with the baptisms preceeding and following being of 1868. I expect Father Thibau simply made a mistake. Further, if the record of the baptism of Prosper Senecal (q.v.) is correct, Remy could not have been born in 1866.

Note: this is an interesting page. It gives Elsina's birth at top. B. 40 godmother is Matilda Grenier who married Mose (Sr.) De Lore in 1881. He is godfather B. 41. I don't know yet who Agnes Delor is. Also Gideon Senecal's daughter Paulina was about the same age as his granddaughter, Elsina. Gideon was about 65 at this time.

I have found, so far, these spellings of Senecal - there are others. Senegal, Snecal, Snical, Senecall, Senechal, Snakel.

The parish records cited by page number are translated from the original (in most cases with xerox attached) parish records which are in the Archives of The Chancery Office of the Archdiocese of Portland, Oregon, 2838 East Burnside, Portland, Oregon 97207. Those cited "Mantle" are from "The Mantle of Elias" by M. Leona Nichols, a book published by Binfords and Mort, Portland, Oregon in the early 1940's. The latter part of the book is taken up with Mrs. Nichols' translation of some of the early Catholic Church records in Oregon.

Items marked "Newspaper clippings" are from one of these papers, not specified: "The Dufur Dispatch", "The Dalles Optimist", or "The Dalles Chronicle". They come from a series of scrapbooks kept by a man in Dufur, Oregon, who apparently put in articles about people he knew or who lived in the area. The scrapbooks are in the keeping of Mrs. Louis C. Bliem, Box 356, Dufur, Oregon, 97021, who kindly searched them for us.

Will the following people:

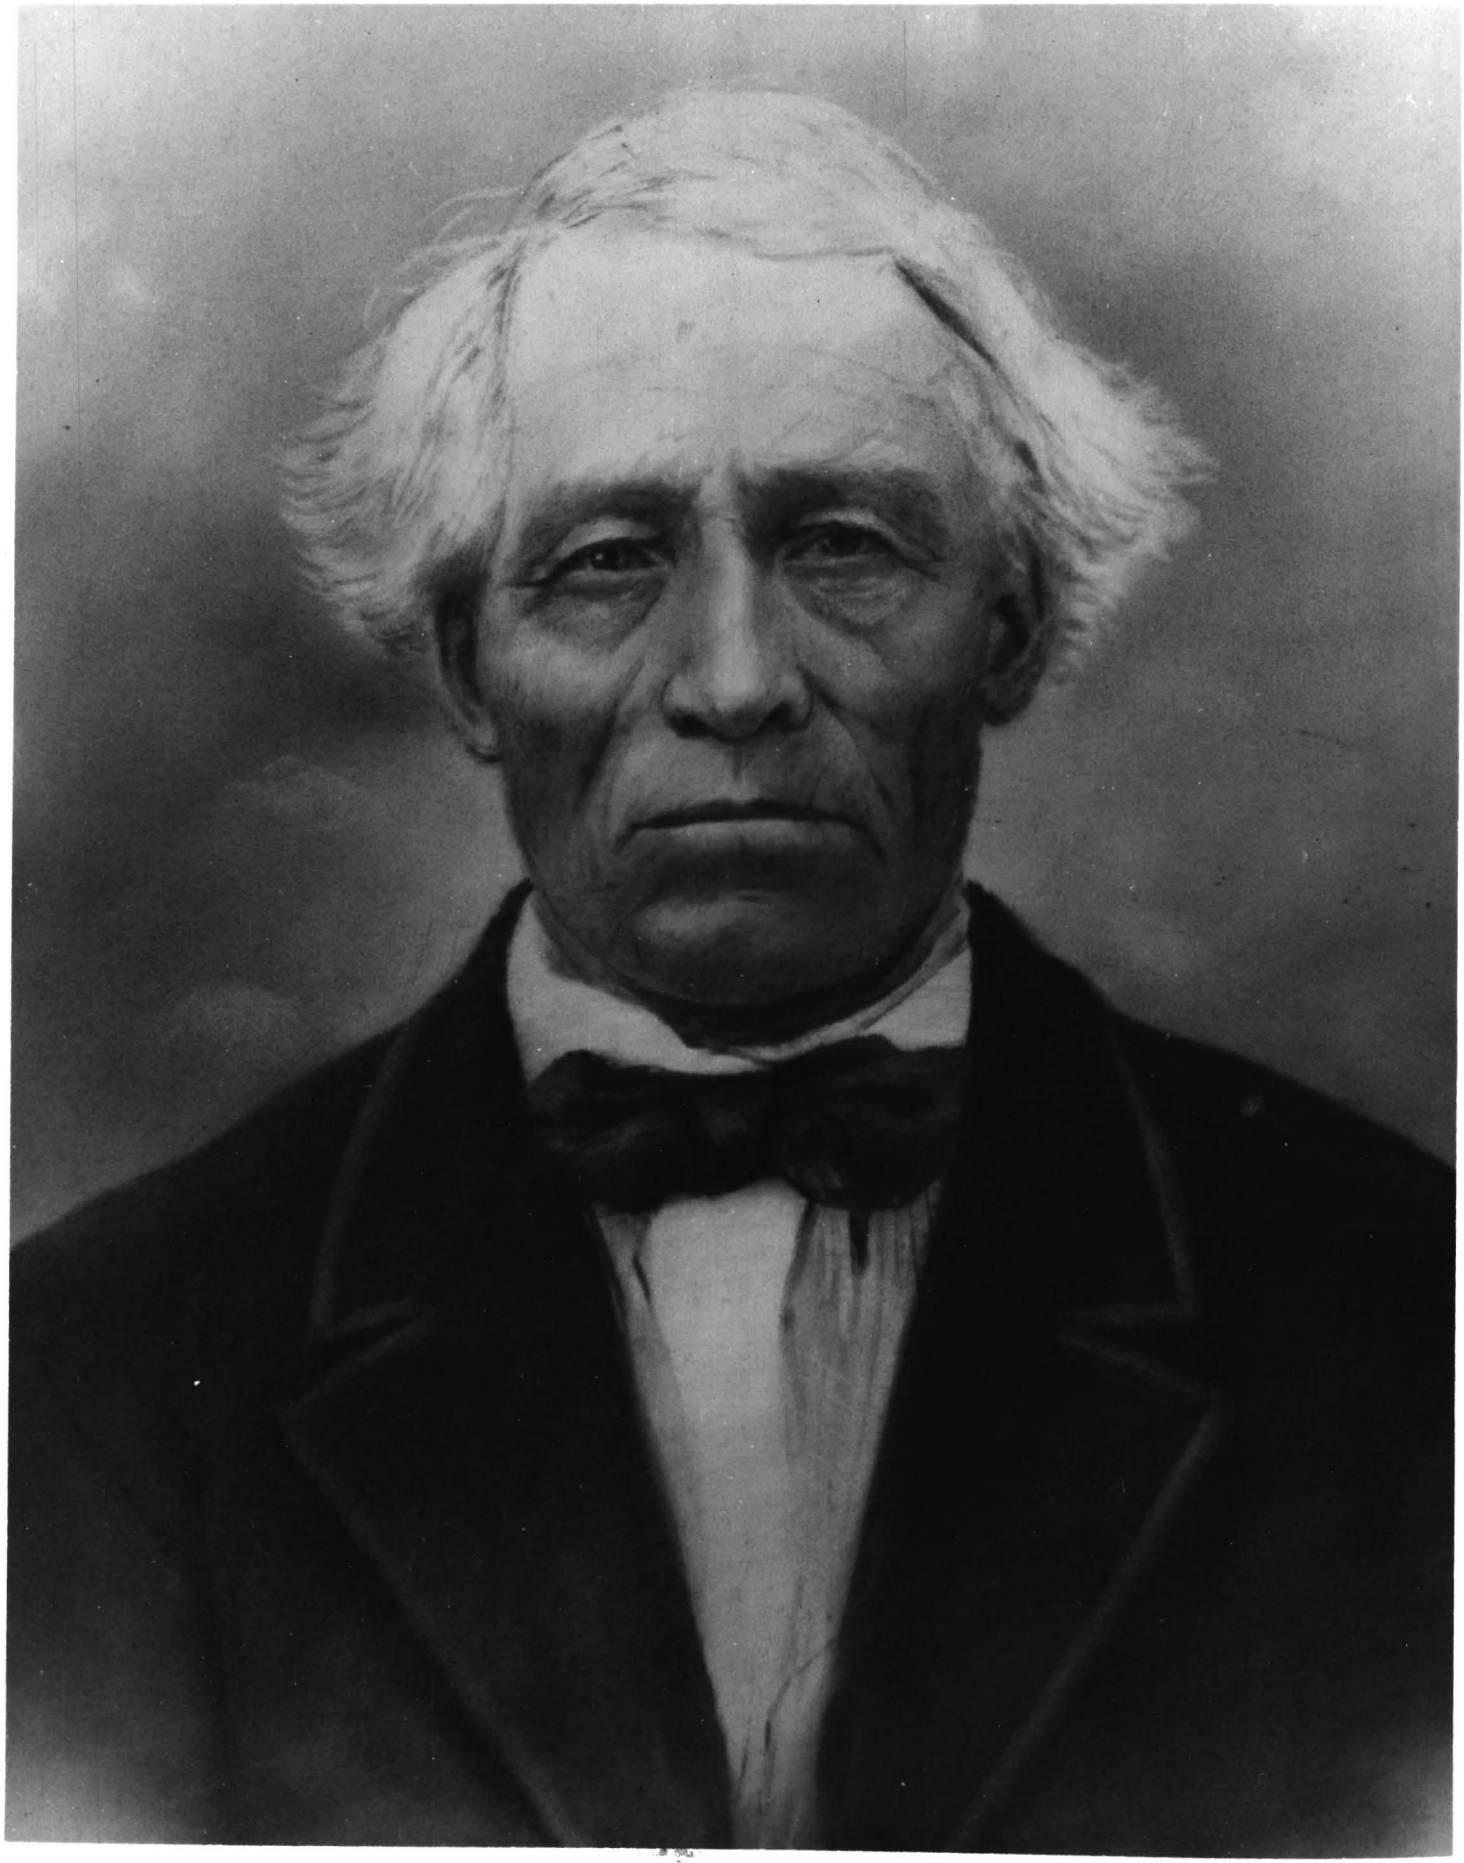

Mrs. Andrew Bernard, Jr.

please destroy the 4 pages of Senecal material sent by me earlier, marked "Senecal" at the top of each page in my handwriting. These pages contain errors, are no longer of value, and are replaced by the pages accompanying this page.

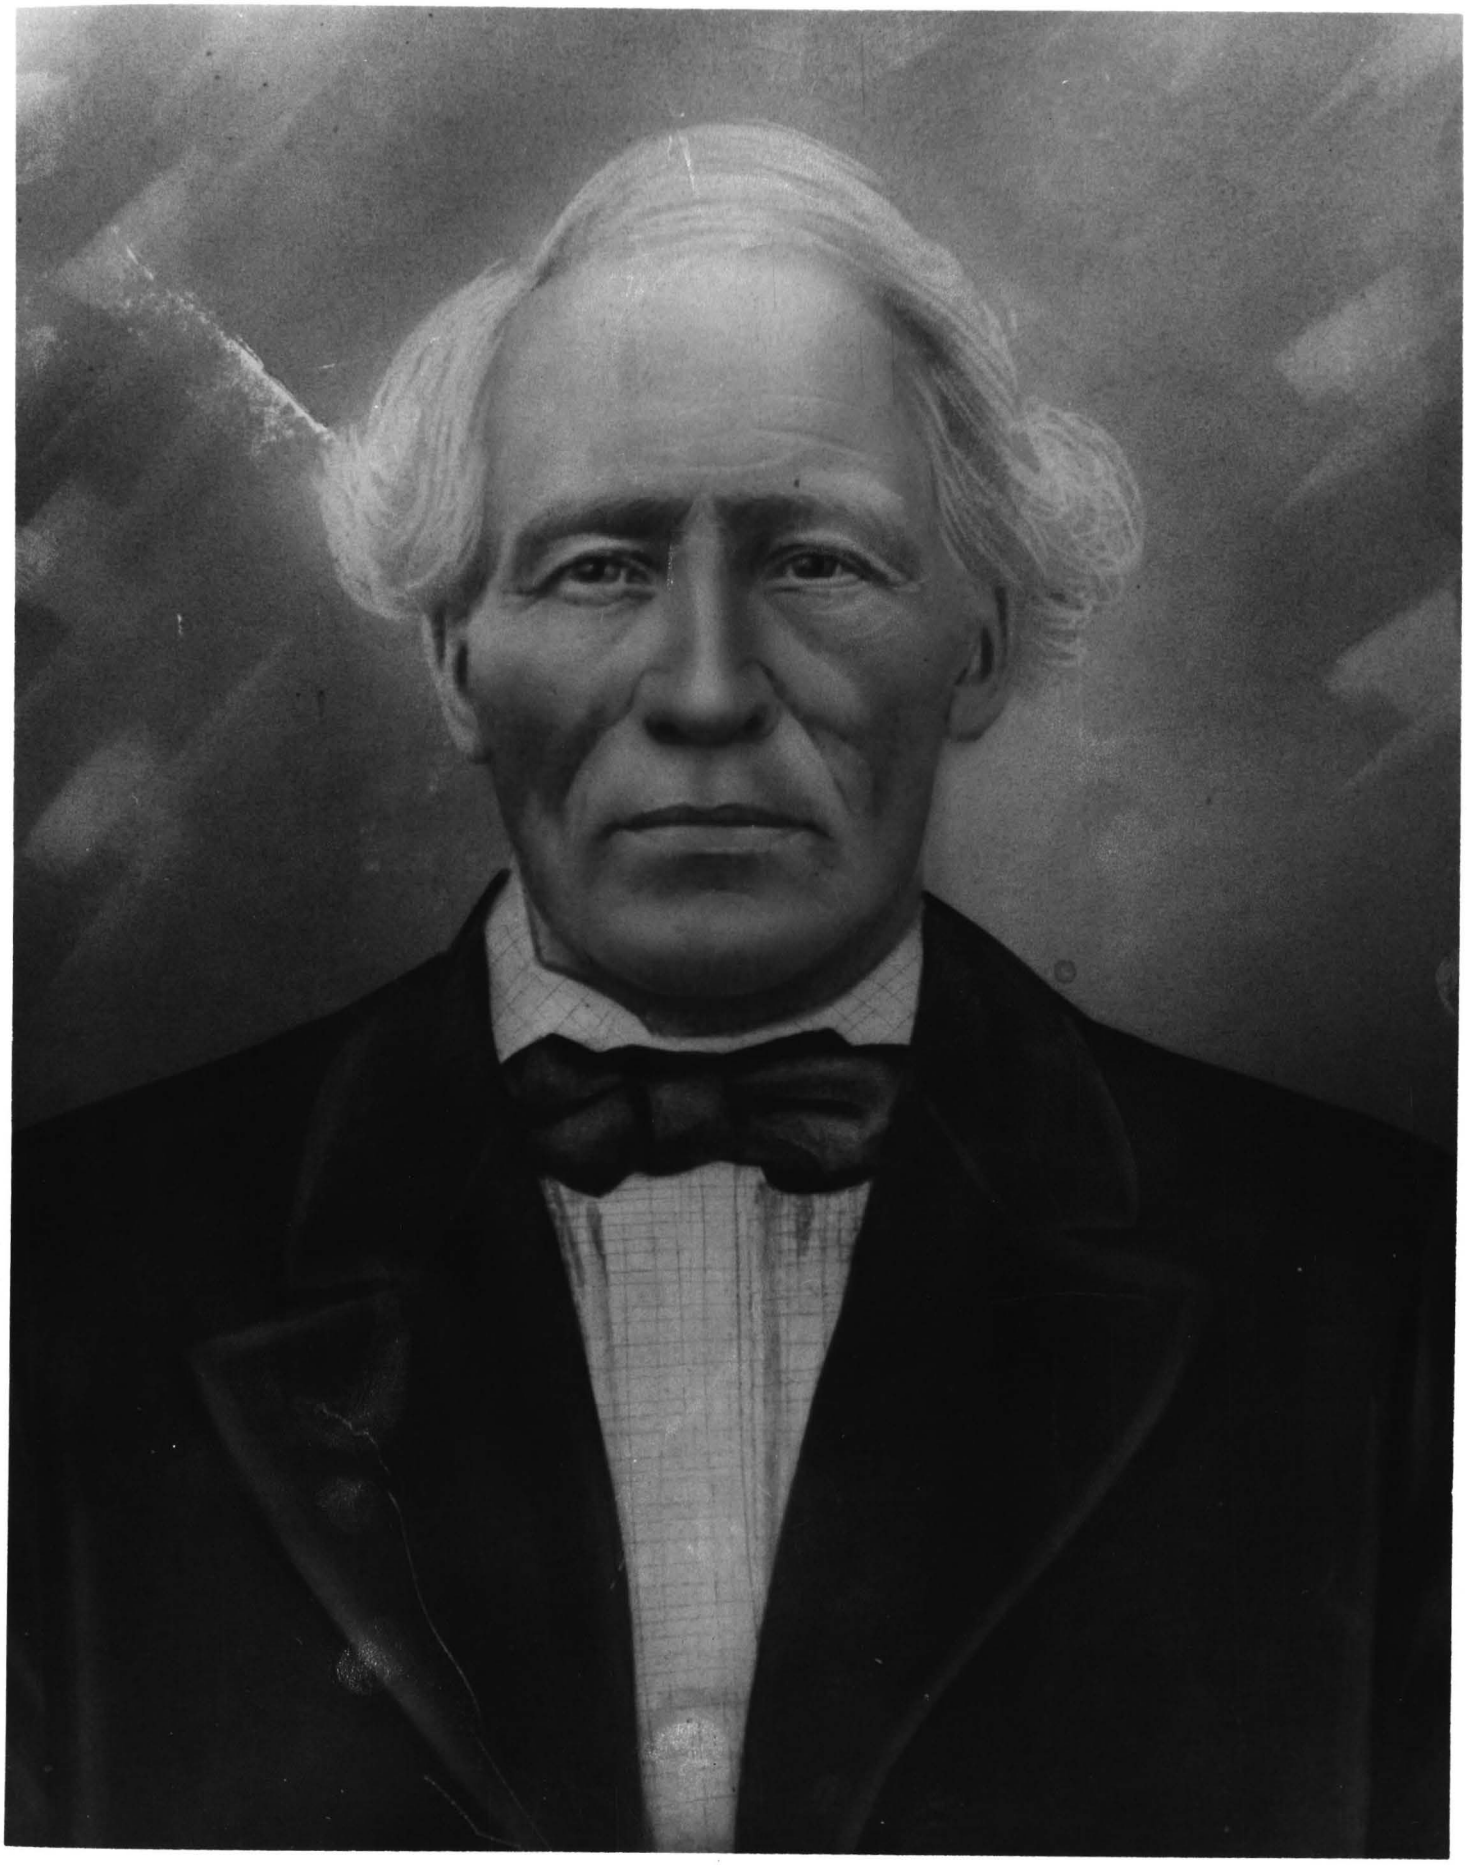

Please share with all of us. If any of the Senecal descendants (or others) have papers, pictures, newspaper clippings, information - please send to me. However, DO check with me by letter before sending pictures, etc. to be sure you have my current address. Until further notice use:
