Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States (MOLLUS)

In response to the assassination of Abraham Lincoln, the Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States (MOLLUS) was founded on April 15, 1865 in Philadelphia by Lieutenant Colonel Samuel Brown Wylie Mitchell, Lieutenant Colonel Thomas Ellwood Zell and Captain Peter Dirck Keyser. The object of MOLLUS was and is “to cherish the memories and associations of the war waged in defence of the unity and indivisibility of the Republic; to strengthen the ties of fraternal friendship and sympathy formed from companionship-in-arms; to advance the best interests of the soldiers and sailors of the United States, especially of those associated as members of this Order, and to extend all possible relief to their widows and children; to foster the cultivation of Military and Naval Science; to enforce unqualified allegiance to the General Government; to protect the rights and liberties of American citizenship, and to maintain National Honor, Union and Independence.”

In order to qualify for membership to MOLLUS, an individual needed to have been either a male officer in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps who fought in the “suppression of the Rebellion” (first class companions), a male descendant of an officer (second class companions), or an individual who “... during the Rebellion [was] specially distinguished for conspicuous and consistent loyalty to the National Government, and who have been active and eminent in maintaining the supremacy of the same” (third class companions). The individual then had to be recommended by three members of MOLLUS and had to comply with the constitution and bylaws of MOLLUS. Members of MOLLUS are commonly referred to as “Companions.”

MOLLUS is organized into State Commanderies (known as “The Commandery of the State of [state]”), all of which are under the National Commandery, known as the “Commandery-in-Chief.” The first Commandery was The Commandery of the State of Pennsylvania (formed April 15, 1865), which also administered MOLLUS at the national level until the Commandery-in-Chief was formed in 1885. Throughout its existence, MOLLUS has been a distinguished society whose membership has included Honorary Member President Abraham Lincoln (posthumous), and Presidents Rutherford B. Hayes, Ulysses S. Grant, Benjamin Harrison, and William McKinley. MOLLUS has also been an active community organizer and supporter of patriotic and military activity of the United States. For example, MOLLUS purchased tracts of land in Gettysburg and Spotsylvania that were subsequently donated to the National Park Service as part of the battlefield parks. MOLLUS has also raised support to benefit military veterans of the Civil War.

Dames of the Loyal Legion of the United States (DOLLUS)

The Dames of the Loyal Legion of the United States (DOLLUS) is the sister organization of MOLLUS, comprised of female descendants of military officers who fought during the Civil War. DOLLUS was founded in Chicago, Illinois in 1899 by Ella Thomas Hapeman, the widow of Lt. Colonel Douglas Hapeman. Along with other widows and wives of Civil War servicemen, Hapeman founded DOLLUS for “the wives, mothers, daughters, and widows” of MOLLUS Companions and their future descendants, with the object “to foster the spirit of patriotism and to cherish the memory of those men and women, whose distinguished service during the Civil War, so largely aided in preserving the integrity of the Government of the United States of America.”

DOLLUS is comprised of State Chapters and a National Chapter. The Society of the State of Illinois acted as the National Chapter until 1904. The National Society is comprised of present and past members of state societies. Currently, only two State Societies (the District of Columbia and Ohio) and the National Society exist. There is also a National Members-at-Large chapter of DOLLUS for those who are members but do not reside near either state society. The National Society meets annually, usually in conjunction with the annual meeting of MOLLUS. Many State Societies of DOLLUS sent their records to the National Society of DOLLUS, which in turn sent all of their records to the MOLLUS headquarters for safekeeping. These records are now part of the MOLLUS collection. For more information on DOLLUS, see their website: <http://suvcw.org/mollus/dollus/home.htm>

Researchers interested in these subjects would be particularly interested in the member scrapbooks, which are rich with biographical information about MOLLUS members; the member photograph books, which contain rare photographs of members; and the anniversary scrapbooks, which document the former prominence of MOLLUS in Philadelphia. The Civil War scrapbooks, as well as various correspondence involving notable figures such as William Tecumseh Sherman, are also of historical interest. Additionally, documents within this collection associated with Gettysburg and the Soldier’s Home attest to MOLLUS’s significant involvement with the establishment of national monuments.
