

U.S. Senator Robert Taft (right) discusses a budget point with Ohio GOP chairman John Andrews before the two men appeared on the platform for the Ashland County Republican Lincoln Day Dinner. T-G Photo

Republicans socialize; Taft speaks

Sen. Robert Taft, Jr. was the guest speaker before an audience of more than 450 persons at the Ashland County Republican Lincoln Day Dinner Saturday evening in the Convocation Center.

Senator absent

U.S. Senator John V. Tunney, scheduled to speak in AC's Visiting Lecture Series Tuesday morning, cancelled his engagement because an important vote was scheduled in the Senate Judiciary Committee that morning.

According to Erma Wright, director of the Ashland College news bureau, "Efforts are being made to reschedule the senator's speech for Feb. 29 at the same time."

The 36 year old senator from New York also serves on the public works and District of Columbia committees.

Taft, who was featured among many presentations, introductions and remarks, charged that the criticism of President Nixon's latest peace proposal showed a "Lack of responsibility."

"Every American is free to speak his piece," Taft said, "But, when he is a leading candidate, I think he has a certain responsibility to moderate what he says so as to not undercut efforts to end the war and make progress on the prisoner of war question." The Ohio senator was referring to the critical statement made recently by Sen. Edwin Muskie.

Taft told the gathered Republicans, "I think we can be proud of our record. This is an issue we can and must take to the people."

At a press conference held prior to the dinner for local high school and city newspapers, (Continued on page 5)

Wind ensemble to perform

Some of the finest traditional and contemporary concert music will be represented by the Ashland College Symphonic Wind Ensemble Sunday.

Under the direction of Martin D. Pachey, director of bands at AC, the ensemble will present Russell Alexander's "Colossus of Columbia," "Aria and Toccata" by Richard Willis, "Symphony for Band" by Vincent Persichette, Gabriel Pares' "Le Voltigeur Concert March," "Blue Lake Overture" by John Barnes Chance, "An Original Suite" by Gordon Jacob and Leonard Bernstein's "Overture to 'Candide'."

Speaking of this annual winter event, Pachey said, "If you enjoy concert band music, this program has something for everyone." (Continued on page 4)

Vol. XLV No. 19

AN INDEPENDENT STUDENT NEWSPAPER

February 17, 1972

New committee started

ABC to divide $300,700 fees

By JEFF DITZLER
Editor-In-Chief

The Activities Budget Committee (ABC) will be dividing $300,700 among student organizations from the student activity fee next term.

An estimated 2,425 students will be attending AC next fall. The activity fee is $124 per student per year. The distribution of the monies, which must be done before the end of the 1972-73 term, involves such organizations as the Student Senate, Collegian, Pine Whispers, SUBG, athletics, health services and the dramatics area.

ABC met initially Tuesday afternoon in an attempt to allocate student activities funds to divisions, departments and organizations which provide services and/or programs for the campus community.

The committee is made up of four students and four faculty members as the eight voting members. Other non-voting members include a secretary, and presiding administrators George Guiley, dean of student life, and Robert Bingham, business manager.

Students representing an overall consensus of the campus are representatives Linda Scott, secretary, freshman class; Margie Dowds, secretary, sophomore class; Stu Johnson, senior treasurer; and Jim Gingery, vice president, freshman class.

The faculty members voting on all student allocations are Tom Shockney, assistant professor of business; Gloria Holmes, associate professor of elementary education; Donald Rinehart, assistant professor of religion; and Marilyn Troxel, assistant professor of biology.

The students were selected from all class leaders who showed an unbiased interest in the new committee and who were not voting members of the Student Senate. It was noted that no representatives from the junior class became involved.

Students leaders selected the representatives after private conferences with each. Selecting and organizing the committee, in association with Dean Guiley, were Gary Thompson, senate treasurer; Don Freeborn, senate social vice-president; Robert Dye, SUBG chairman; Bob Faurot, (Continued on page 2)

Art exhibition, sale here

Graphic art originals are on sale today in the Arts and Humanities building. The exhibition and sale is sponsored by the Ferdinand Roten Galleries of Baltimore and runs from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The exhibition includes more than 1,000 etchings, lithographs and woodcuts by both old masters and contemporaries. Works by Picasso, Chagall, Miro, Dali, Goya, Renoir, Kollwitz and other contemporary American,

European and Japanese artists are included and priced from $5 up (the majority are priced at under $100).

A Roten Galleries representative is on hand to answer any questions.

Roten Galleries was established in 1932 and specializes in exhibition sales of original graphic art at colleges, museums and art centers throughout the United States.

WSGA welcomes sisses for weekend activities

Ashland co-eds will host their little sisters and friends for a weekend of activities starting Friday evening as WSGA once again sponsors its annual Little Sis Weekend.

Activities will begin 4:30 to 6 p.m. Friday with registration in Clayton and Amstutz lobbies. Supper will be served from 4:30 to 6 p.m. with the Eagles' basketball game against Baltimore University of Maryland at 8:15 p.m. in the Physical Education Center.

Also being offered is a Student Union Board of Governors movie along with bowling at King Lanes, ice skating at the SUBG ice rink on Samaritan Avenue, weather permitting, and roller skating at the fair grounds.

Little sisters arriving Saturday may register from 9 to 11 a.m. in Amstutz lobby only. Demonstrations of macrame and wood burning by various Ashland College students will be presented at 10 a.m. in Jacobs.

Beginning at 11 a.m. sisters can watch the AC track team in action against Cleveland State and Marshall University in Conrad Field House.

After the 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. lunch, entertainment plans include a spring fashion discussion sponsored by O'Neil's Department Stores in the Little Theatre. From 4:30 to 6 p.m. dinner will be served followed by bowling, ice skating and roller skating.

Sunday morning church services will be offered at 10 a.m. by Alpha Theta in the Chapel. Lunch will follow from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.

apology

The Collegian extends its apologies to Deborah Mason, Panhellenic Council President, for inadvertently omitting her name from the Who's Who listing in last week's front page story.

Fraternities post spring pledge lists

By PAUL LOCHER
Campus Editor

The five fraternities at Ashland College have officially announced their spring pledge classes. They are as follows:

Pledging Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity are Ray Herschel, Dave Dunford, Richard Seese, James Burke, Richard Ferrari, Robert Cooper, Ben Bihl, Earle Smith, Robert Kopp, Peter Costello, Steve Davis, Robert Baxter, Jerry McGill, William Heffner, Gary Hart, John Telich, John Jacobs and Coop Hudnutt.

Pledges for the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity are Keith Ekins, Ben Henderson, Larry Harris, Tyrone Owens and Nathaniel Mack, III.

Pledges for Kappa Sigma Fraternity are Rick Adams, Mark Allen, Kress Barton, Tom Brazee, David Brisky, James Brendula, Robert Carlson, Jon Clark, Steven Day, Joe Deeter, Kurt Engel, Randy French, Rick Gimmel, James Gingery, Mark Hendy, Neil Johnson, James Keller, Steven Kirkpatrick, Stewart Proctor, Jay Magee, John Miller, David Moine, William Mullins, Bryon Pike, Jeff Prinz, Edward Ruh, Hank Ryder, Skip Thomas, Joe Somrak, James Storer, Chris Walker, John Ward, James Weaver, James Werleg, Mark Whittaker, Mike Yelenski and Ron Zollars.

Sigma Nu Fraternity pledges are Mike Saner, Rick Klein,

Bryon Bodager, Geof Keyes, Dan Bringardner, Timothy King, John Boyce, Chuck Winans, Mike Gleason, Mark Siino, Gary Haas, Addy Karns, Edward Schaeffer, Jeff Groza, Robert Keller, Al Bennett, Dick Bringardner, David Glossinger, Dennis Long, Timothy Leitnaker, James Corbett, Jeff Rodgers, Dale Krcek, William Hoffman, Pat McClarnen, Tony Wood, Mike Detrow, Ken Dye, Mark Erbaugh, Raymond Pongonis, Robert Moller and John Desanto.

Pledging Phi Delta Theta Fraternity are John Baker, Jamie Martin, Robert Bloom, David Oser, John Brown, Mike Gougler, David Spurrier, Ken Raines, Lee (Continued on page 5)