TREATY WITH THE WYANDOT, ETC., 1815.

A Treaty between the United States of America and the Wyandot, Dela- ware, Seneca, Shawanoe, Miami, Chippewa, Ottawa, and Potawa- timie, Tribes of Indians, residing within the limits of the State of Ohio, and the Territories of Indiana and Michigan.

Sept. 8, 1815.
7 Stat., 131.
Ratified Dec. 26, 1815.

WHEREAS the Chippewa, Ottawa, and Potawatimie, tribes of Indians, together with certain bands of the Wyandot, Delaware, Seneca, Sha- wano, and Miami tribes, were associated with Great Britain in the late war between the United States and that power, and have mani- fested a disposition to be restored to the relations of peace and amity with the said States; and the President of the United States having appointed William Henry Harrison, late a Major General in the ser- vice of the United States, Duncan M'Arthur, late a Brigadier in the service of the United States, and John Graham, Esquire, as Commis- sioners to treat with the said tribes; the said Commissioners and the Schedule referred to in the foregoing treaty, and to be taken and considered as part thereof.

Appropriation of part of the lands granted to the Wyandots.

Three sections, to contain six hundred and forty acres each, are to be reserved out of the tract of twelve miles square to be granted to the Wyandots. One of the said sections is to be appropriated to the use of a missionary, one for the support of schools, and one for the support of mechanics and to be under the direction of the chiefs. Two sections, of six hundred and forty acres each, are to be granted to the following persons, being the kind of the Wyandot tribe, and to be subject to the same laws as the land of the said tribe: John Hicks, Mansue, or Thomas, or Wandutaw, or George Rauh; and Hawdownwaugh, or Matthews.

Division of the remainder.

And, after deducting the fifteen sections thus to be disposed of, the residue of the said tract of twelve miles square is to be equally divided among the following persons, namely: Hoocue, Roudootouk, Mahoma, Naatoua, Mautanawto, Maurunquaws, Naynuhanky, Abrm. Williams, sen. of the tracts reserved by the treaty of Greenville on the south side of the Miami river of Lake Erie, and to include Tushquegan, or M'Carty's village; which tracts, thus granted, shall be held by the said tribe, upon the usual conditions of Indian reservations, as though no patent were issued.

ART. 21. This treaty shall take effect, and be obligatory on the contracting parties, as soon as the same shall have been ratified by the President of the United States, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate thereof.

Treaty obligatory
when ratified.

In testimony whereof, the said Lewis Cass and Duncan McArthur, commissioners as aforesaid, and the sachems, chiefs, and warriors, of the Wyandot, Seneca, Shawanee, Delaware, Pattawatima, Ottawa, and Chippewa tribes of Indians, have hereunto set their hands, at the foot of the Rapids of the Miami of lake Erie, this twenty-ninth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventeen.

Lewis Cass,
Duncan McArthur.
