BOARD OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION

FOR

COLLIER COUNTY

ERNEST W. HALL, COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT
EVERGLADES, FLORIDA

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS Mr. Frederick J. Frankenhoff, from August 3, 1931, until January 2, 1951, served continuously as member of the Collier County Board of Public Instruction, being appointed to that position by Doyle E. Carlton, Governor of Florida; and

WHEREAS the Board of Public Instruction, reposing great confidence in the abilities and integrity of the said Frederick J. Frankenhoff, did prevail upon him to serve as its Chairman during his entire tenure of office; and

WHEREAS Mr. Frankenhoff has retired from the Board after years of selfless service, his retirement becoming effective January 2, 1951;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, on this the 6th day of February, 1951, by the Board of Public Instruction of Collier County, State of Florida, meeting in regular session in the Court House in Everglades, that it concurs with numerous other citizens of this county in expressing to Mr. Frankenhoff best wishes for good health, continued success, and future happiness; regret at the loss of his services to the schools of Collier County, and appreciation for his nineteen and one half years of consistent and untiring efforts to bring the best in educational advantages and opportunities to the children of Collier County.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this resolution be made a part of the minute record of this Board, and that a copy of said resolution be presented to Mr. Frankenhoff.

Adopted February 6, 1951.

Chairman of School Board

Superintendent of Public Instruction

N.H.S.

DEDICATION

To Mr. F. J. Frankenhoff, past Chairman of the Collier County School Board, we, the Senior Class of 1951, dedicate this year book.

Mr. Frankenhoff served as Chairman of the Collier County School Board from 1933 to 1951. When he retired due to his great and rewarded efforts, Collier County had two new school buildings. Construction on the third is under way. He has worked unceasingly to better the schools of Collier County.

Mr. Frankenhoff was born in Berlin, Germany, April 4, 1887. He attended the University of Berlin in 1907 and later, in that same year, he came to America. In 1919 he attended LaSalle Extension University in Chicago.

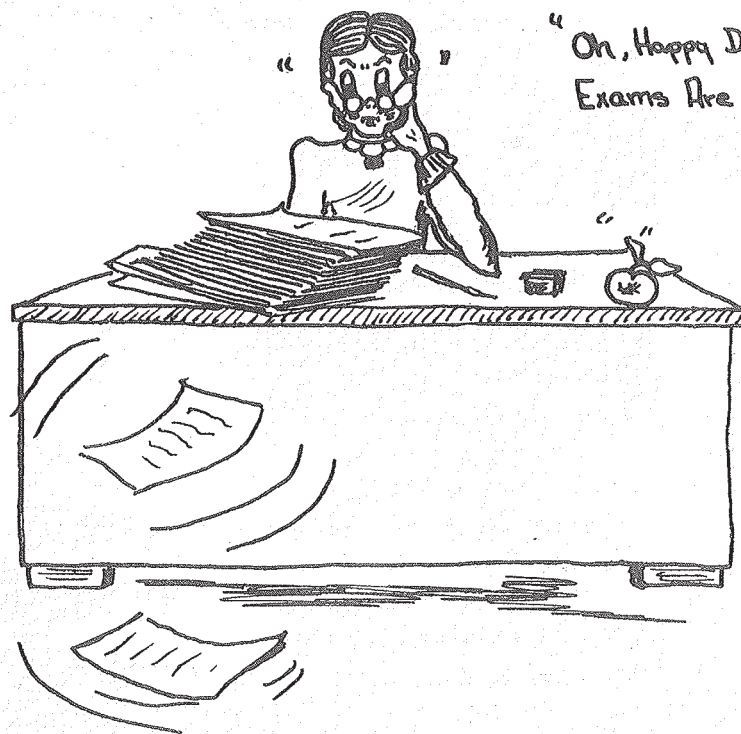

In 1923, December 30, he accepted a position with the Barron Collier Interests at Everglades, Florida, as Comptroller and Public Accountant.

He is a member of the Lutheran Church, Naples Lions Club, Masons, and has served as Chairman of the War Finance Committee in Collier County during World War II.

Never before, has Collier County had such a true and faithful worker in behalf of the schools. He is, indeed, a friend of all . . .

CLASS OF '51

There is a class at old Naples High, in number they're seventeen strong,

They're leaving their Alma Mater now to begin life's journey long.

Yes, they stand on the threshold of life with its joy and sorrow;

Their high school days are over, they must face the future tomorrow.

"Finis Coronat Opus" means the end crowns the work;

The class, by choosing this motto, from duty would never shirk.

"Finis Coronat Opus", their motto, gave them inspiration;

'Twill continue to provide courage after their graduation.

The carnation, with its fragrance, they chose as their own class flower;

It typifies strength and endurance, it symbolizes ambition and power.

The red of their colors means courage and bravery and strength to endure;

The white they chose for its sterling worth—its qualities rich and pure.

Their Alma Mater, dear Naples High, has given to them their start,

But now as they leave its classic halls, their hearts are sad as they part.

They'll remember the lessons you've taught them, your standards they'll ever hold high,

The honor and truth you gave in their youth will guide them as days go by.

And now to you, friends and classmates, these seniors of '51

Must bid to you their last adieu, since their high school days are done.

N.H.S.

CLASS SONG OF 1951

Classmates now comes the time when we must leave you.
We will always remember the good times we have had.
The time has come when we must face the world and leave you here.
Naples, dear old High School, so long and goodbye.

"NAPLES ON THE BAY"

I want to wake up in the morning,
Where the cool Gulf breezes blow,
Where the moon light reaches
Over broad white beaches
And the bathing beauties grow

I want to wander back yonder
Down the Tamiami way
And go drifting back to dreamland
Down to Naples on the bay.

"ALMA MATER"

Glory and love to our dear old school,
To live and die for it is our rule,
Courage and loyalty we will give,
Whatever we do,
To you we will be true,
As long as we live,
Now the gold and blue will forever fly.
Dear old Naples High;
Alma Mater,
Where e'er our paths may lie,
We'll honor you and cherish you
As days go by;
Glory and love to our dear old school,
To live and die for it is our rule;
Courage and loyalty we will give,
To you we'll be true,
As long as we live.

THE JUNIOR CLASS OF 1951

The Junior class of 1951
Was full of foolishness and fun.
They could always mix work with play
And carry out a jolly day.
I'll tell you how that happened to be.
If you'll just listen awhile to me.
I'll start with the officers,
What a jolly few,
But they worked sincerely
The whole year through.

Our nice young president, Donna Ridge,
She pounded on her desk
As if she were building a bridge.

Vice president Bert Williams
Took over his job like
He was paid a million.

Treasurer Barbara Seeley
Kept account of her figures
And I do mean really
A hard working kid that Seeley.

Secretary Lettie Howard
Did all a secretary could do,
She kept her minutes
And read them too.

The rest of the group
Was quite a crew,
But if you listen
You'll like them too.

That Paul Frank
He liked to pull pranks,
But he was a sport
Also a crank.

There was George DeBusman,
Such a cute little tyke;
He wanted to grow tall,
But we thought him just right.

Mable Cook, a dish-water blond,
She put her man under a peace bond;
It was as Mable always did say,
"Better living that way."

Sue Brazille sure got her thrill,
She married a man by the name of Bill.
There were two children
Names were Jack and Jill.

N.H.S.

Nellie Hamilton is a true redhead,
She brushed and combed her locks before she went to bed,
As she always did want to have pretty hair,
She was blessed, and it was really there.

Margaret Rimes, a lover of sports,
Liked to play ball of all kinds and sorts.
It seems she likes her Dutchman, too,
But who can blame her; he sure is cute.

Jackie Daniels a quiet little thing,
She kept her Joe tied to a string.
Alabama is now her home,
And from that place she will never more roam.

Margaret Fasce with all her curves
Got someplace, but, did she have nerve.
Married a guy by the name of A. E.
Now has a home by the side of the sea.

Gwenelle Garret, a cute little brunette
Sings along with the Naples quartette.
She hopes someday to break away
And sing by herself. Boy! That'll be the day.

Peggy Roberts wanted to become a nurse,
With her the sick always came first.
She would take temperatures and soothe heads, too,
But that is the work a nurse has to do.

Charles Hicks, an airplane pilot to-be,
First started out by joining the C. A. P.
He learns quicker than most boys do;
He'll soon be a pilot sincere and true.

A. E. Canant couldn't make up his mind
He guessed he'd go on with the same old grind.
School every day, and girls at night
Then hardly to sleep before it's broad daylight.

John Scott is a fancy truck driver;
He worked his way up and is now supervisor.
He lets all the other men see what he knows
And sits in a chair and twiddles his toes.

Dick Addison wanted to become a boxer;
Look at him now, he sure is a knocker;
He knocks them coming right and left,
Just ask anyone—Dick is the best.

And that my friends is the Junior class of 51.
Can't you see how we all have fun?
Working together and seeing our troubles through.
As the years go on that's what we shall do.

WE SOPHOMORES

If you would look in on our class, you would see and hear a lot of things. Most of us sophomores pal around with someone in our room. And if you hear what these pals say to each other you would think the same as I do—we're crazy. Here's what goes on most of the time with the sophomores.

JUNE (M) "Do you like my potato salad Jimmy"?

JIMMY (D) "Delicious! Did you buy it all by yourself"?

CARL (T) "I just had my life insured"

CHARLENE (L) "You would, you selfish thing, always thinking of yourself first"

INEZ (K) "Im going to be married tomorrow"

GAIL (G) "Are you? Who's your opponent."

JAMES (R) "Do you think it would be unlucky for me to come to school on Fridays?"

FRED (A) "Certainly. Why should Friday be an exception"?

JESSIE (A) "Dan and I are going steady".

GLADYS (H) "You don't mean it?"

JESSIE (A) "No, but he thinks I do".

STANLEY (L) "Honey, will ya'll marry me?"

DELORES (W) "Oh, this is so southern."

BYRON (H) "How come you go steady with June Jolly"?

PAUL (W) "She's different from the other girls".

BYRON (H) "How's that"?

PAUL (W) "She's the only girl who will go with me".

LIKES HER BLUEJEANS

WILMA (G) "Oh, how I wish a girl had trouser pockets to put her hands in".

JACKIE (S) "We will after we get married".

ILENE (C) "Did your dad have much to say when you got in late last night".

JOAN (P) "No, but that didn't prevent him from talking this morning"

LINDA (S) "My dad gave me this fur coat for my birthday".

FRANK (B) "To keep you warm"?

LINDA (S) "No, to keep me quiet".

MELBA (J) "Do you think Gene Ozier is a book worm"?

PAT (M) "No, just an ordinary one".

JEANETTE (S) "How did Delores come out with her reducing diet"?

FAYE (L) "Fine. She disappeared completely last week".

TOMMY (T) "What did you leave school for?"

BOBBY (W) "Three hundred dollars a month."

We sophomores are good at jokes, but we will work harder and be better sports in our Junior year.

History About the Freshman Class of "51"

This year has been an exciting year for the "Freshman Bunch" of 1951 as the year started out in our New High School Building. We were all very proud to call ourselves high school students and, also, to have a new building to call our very own.

There were two sections of the ninth grade and to distinguish them, we named them 9-A and 9-B. Miss Tye had her home room called 9-A, and Mr. Barnes had charge of 9-B.

Every time either of the teachers was out of the room, they would return always hearing a constant chatter among the students. I guess this was because we were all interested in sports and had stars from our basketball, softball, and baseball teams in our rooms. There were always remarks and comments to make about the games and sports.

The most popular girls in the ninth grade were Billie Strickland, our basketball star; Kay Moore, Edward Jones' dream gal; and Joyce Thornton, every-body's pal.

The most popular boys were Cecil Garrett, no comment; Edward Jones, loudest mouth in class; and Richard Parker, the boy with crew-cut hair.

We had a very jolly group. As we were always in good spirits in and out of class,—we were sometimes called the "Jolly Freshmen."

Ruth Clemons was, also, the center of attraction in school time because she was always jolly and liked to have fun. Of course her fun cost us about three minutes after bell time every day. But we all still love her just the same—especially Miss Tye.

During the year we were all in plays which the school liked and, also, most of us were in some sort of clubs where we joined in more fun and adventure.

We dedicate this year to our beloved teachers who taught us what we know and learned in Naples High School through "1950-51".

Until the sun and moon shall pale,
Our Naples High School we shall hail.

N.H.S.

The Fresh Forty-Nine

A verse about the freshmen
I'm supposed to write,
But nothing I can think to say
Except they are all right.

With Forty-eight against me
First place I cannot dare,
But bet your life on one thing—
You'll all know I've been there.

We have the strictest teachers
For that, we sometimes fuss,
But if other folk don't like them,
They'd better not tell us!

We're the roughest toughest bunch of kids
That ever went to school;
If we get through these next two months,
We'll know the Golden Rule.

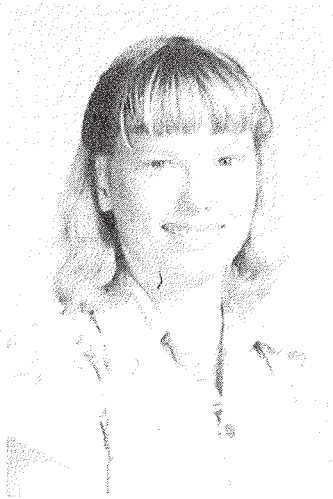

Our teachers, we all love them;
Our school's a perfect place
To learn to love our fellow man,
Our future lives to face.

Just three more years we've got to go
Before we're graduated;
Let's hope we're together then,
Not one eliminated!

EIGHTH GRADE'S FUTURE

One night as I was home alone, I walked into my room and my eyes fell upon an old Neapolitan. I picked it up and began to look through the pages. As I looked, I saw many of my old school pals.

The first was the smiling face of Don Ruby, who was always talking about becoming an engineer. Well, Don married Joyce Hodnett, and he engineers while she teaches first grade at Naples.

The next face was that of Carolyn Scott, one of the smartest girls in our very smart class. She has become the wife of Wesley Briggs Jr. Wesley, by the way, has just signed a contract to catch for the Boston Red Sox next year.

The next was none other than Teddy Tuttle—the little guy with the big smile. He is now the owner of Naples Hardware and is married to a sweet little girl from Fort Myers.

As I went down the line, I found Red Stier, the one time famous basketball player. Red recently won a game for his opponents by tossing the ball in the wrong goal.

Then came Mary Smith—and she is at present one of the best loved stars on the screen. Time changes everything.

Next to her I saw George Ryall who is the pastor of the Church of God in Naples. He always preaches a good stern sermon.

As I went on through the pages, I saw the faces of Willie Wainwright, Tim Jones, Michael Cannon and Dick Capelle, who at this time sing in the Sunny South Quartet. David Weeks is pianist for them when he is not pitching for the St. Louis Cardinals.

Next to these was Billy Metts. Billie has the distinction of being the president of the U. S. A. He has just had an important meeting with Leslie Turner, the governor of Florida.

Looking further I saw Meece Ellis—the principal of Naples High School. He has Nancy Cope for his secretary, and has hired Rex Stepp as coach for the boys. Barbara Brown is coaching the girls.

The last picture on that page was of Sylvia Whidden. She made singing her career, and is now singing in a night club in Miami which is owned by Donald Bennet and Richard Quillen.

When I turned the page, I saw Joel Shannon. He is a doctor of Naples since Dr. Craig retired. He has two very sweet nurses, Naomi Goethe and Bettie Mills. His receptionist is Ada Keen.

Next I saw two fellows who have become prosperous fishermen. They are Emil Meister and Clinton Goldie. They gave a banquet the other night to celebrate a large catch of mullet and they had Kent Smith's orchestra there with Jo Sheffield at the piano.

The last picture was that of Marlene Allen who is still in college studying to become a surgical nurse.

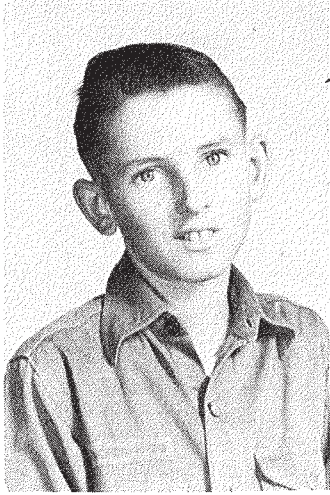

Well, time has swiftly passed away and my eyes are getting heavy, so I guess I will put the old Neapolitan back on the shelf until another time. Good luck to all of my old N. H. S. pals.

SEVENTH GRADE HISTORY

Exactly seven years ago we started what to us was a very unpromising 12 years of school.

In the first grade we were full of ambition, but a few experiments took all of that ambition out of us. However, one experiment did work. We planted a cherry tree and it is still growing.

In the second grade we cut up and made fools of ourselves. Thurston Townsend and Adrain Wingate tried to chop down our cherry tree, but the teacher caught them in time. They were playing George Washington, they said.

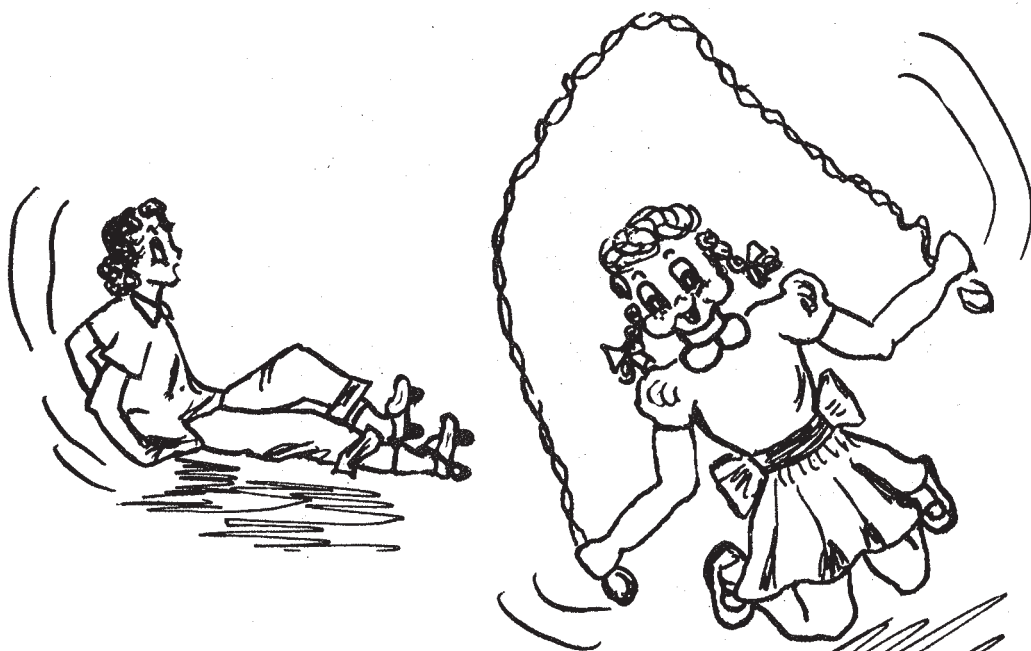

In the third, fourth, fifth and sixth grades we tried many new experiments but very few worked. We did have a flower show in the fifth grade which everyone liked.

This year we are really trying to settle down and work. Miss Spivey does not think so though.

Some of our outstanding characteristics are:

Wayne Baker	Mumbling
Kenny Capelle	Being a lady's man
Jimmy Jones	Having the last word
Paul Gomes	His funny faces
James Helveston	Being witty
Henry Lowe	Being likeable
Russel Platt	Never studying
Danny Ryan	His art ability
Gary Tomlinson	Wearing his red cap
Thurston Townsend	Being a good catcher
Adrian Wingate	Being everyone's friend
Austin Smith	Making airplanes
Jim Nichols	Eating candy in class
Kent Worthen	Cute talk
Larry Johnson	Ohhhhh
Berney Shepherd	Playing baseball
Dickie Raffield	His gift of gab
Frances Bone	Never hurrying
Patty Bowling	Her polite manners
Kitty Clarke	Her horse
Betty Davis	Being friendly
Carol Dyches	Her diving ability
Janet Friedbacher	Making good posters
Nancy King	Being lady like
Mary R. Hixon	Her cute smile
Mattie Meister	Being good
Linda Robinson	Her neat appearance
Carolyn Townsend	Being athletic
Shirley Walker	Reading Paul Bunyan
Marion Carroll	Being a pest
JoAnn Sisler	Hitting home runs
Sandra Otts	Her horse talk
Patsy Iverson	Being studious

BANQUET and PROM

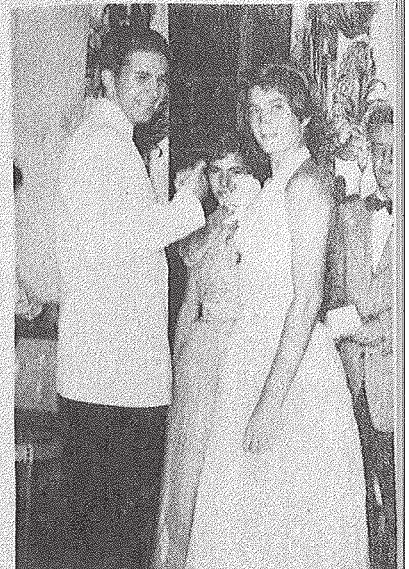

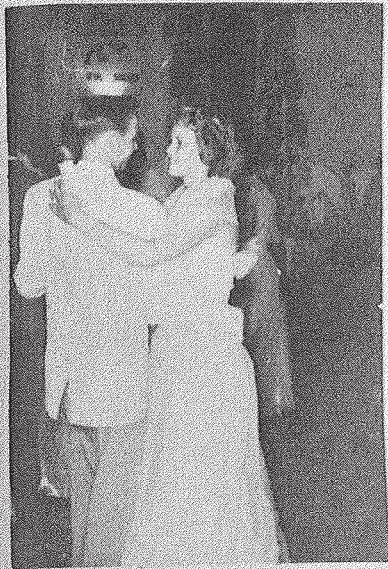

The annual banquet and prom for the Seniors was held on April twenty-seventh at the Naples Beach Club and Hotel. The custom of entertaining the Seniors in some way dates back to nineteen twenty-eight. The theme this year was, "April Showers". The color scheme was red and white, with a red carnation centerpiece. The banquet table was beautifully decorated to carry out the theme. Small silver sprinkling cans serving as nut cups and tiny umbrellas were arranged at each place for favors. Seven toasts were given during the evening with Donna Ridge, Junior Class president, serving as toastmaster. The guest speaker for the evening was Mr. A. D. Miller. Everyone was quite excited when Mr. Gary Cooper and Miss Mari Alden made an appearance.

The ball room where the prom was held was attractively decorated with a rose arbor, a sun dial, white picket fences, and many fragrant flowers. Across the south end of the room hung a banner with the theme "April Showers" repeated on it. A huge sign welcoming the honor guest, the seniors, was displayed here also. During the prom dainty hor d'ouvres and punch were served. Music was furnished by the "Meadows Melodiers"

BASKETBALL

Coach K. Brown's spirited basketball squad, "The Golden Eagles," had a wonderful team this year. They were second only to Venice both in the conference and the tournament. By beating Naples, Venice became this year's champion.

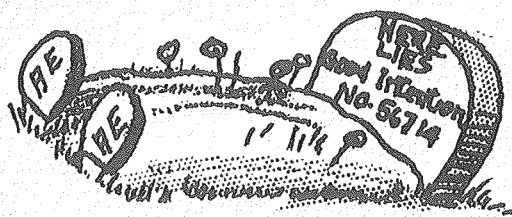

This was the first time a Naples team had been to a state tournament. The boys were excited and nervous, and were beaten by Greensboro, who went on to win the State Class C Champion very easily.

High honors went to three seniors. They were Johnny Smith who scored approximately 200 points, Anthony "Red" Fasce who chalked up more than 150 points, and Gene Baker who was responsible for about 125 points. The team will feel the loss of these three players.

This year Naples was very fortunate in having two players, Anthony Fasce and John Smith, make the All-Tournament team.

Moore Haven Edges To Narrow Victory Over Naples, 16-14

Enduring their first defeat of the 1950-'51 basketball season, the Naples male quintet Friday was humbled, 14 to 16, by Moore's Naples' female counterparts. Never, however, forged their way to triumph over the lady Moore hoopsters.

Naples which started the season with a surge of power, has steadily lost its drive on both offensive and defensive play. The team's shooting skill has dwindled nearly to the point of extinction, it has been observed. Struggling to close victory over Everglades last week, Naples was trounced by the Moore Haven cagers Friday night at Moore Haven on what was classified a "disheartening basketball game."

Naples female basketball team made its way to a first position on the girls' half of the conference. The team, coached by Coach [unclear], won the conference championship by defeating [unclear] 40-20. The team's record stands tied with [unclear] for first position on the girls' half of the conference.

Lena Wolf, girls' coach, is determined to have her girls advance to a safe first position, so no last minute bad luck can cause a conference defeat this year. Coached three year reputation, a second Wolf states that Boca Grande will place in the Everglades conference be the major test for the girls. Once, or a last lunge at first place if the present forward combination stake as they face a strong and keeps clicking, a triumph. The triumphant Venice-Nokomis basketball combo on the local court at "Naples completely lost its shape and Mr. Joel Shannon around the board," commented Coach Kenneth Brown. High scoring honors went to Burt Williams and Red Fasce, who each succeeded in dropping two baskets during the four quarters. Trailing these two forwards was 6'3" center John Smith, who keyholed one basket and completed one foul shot to win a big three in the scoring column. A. Duce was shot by team captain Gene Baker, and A. E. Benant swished one of the three tried fouls, to make his one for the Naples eagles.

Naples' six girl and one boy cheering section energetically followed the team, waving its way to another to revive the waning ball tale. The difference victory.

Naples, who has maintained a record of winning all basketball games, defeated the visiting Naples boys, who had lost a row, found the range and downed Boca Grande 39 to 20.

The Naples High School girls are assured of at least a tie for the Everglades conference championship and Venice-Nokomis has all but clamped the lid on the boys seasonal title. Only a complete collapse by both teams during the next two weeks could keep them from taking top honors.

teams are undefeated in the play which winds up on the night of Feb. 13. The Naples sextet, riding a nine-game victory string, has only three more engagements left and boasts a three-game lead over LaBelle.

Charlie Gadd's Venice almost as close to the upstate team is leading long champion Naples by two and a half games and has four more contests to play. The Collier County five plays only three more games. Thus, Venice can assure itself of a tie by winning one more and can sew up the championship with two victories.

The Naples girls moved within the game of the title last week with their victories, a 28-25 close battle Tuesday and a win over Alva Friday. Ann Jolley with 12 points, Grace Thornton with 11 points, against Alva. Shirley Lee, the losing team took top honors, however, notching 20 points.

The pace-setting boys ran into trouble from Everglades' Joe Smith who racked up 20 points during the evening and kept the second division quintet in the ball game. The score was knotted 11-all at the end of the first quarter, but Venice pulled ahead 32-25 at the half and held a 44-34 margin going into the third quarter.

GIRLS BASKETBALL

A very exciting and successful basketball season was ended with a glorious banquet at LaBelle.

In the 1950-51 season the girls played and won twelve games. The first game which was with Alva was the beginning of the much hoped-for 1950-51 pennant. The next three games finished the 1950 part of the season with four wins out of four games played.

In January the ball started rolling again in a game against Venice. The much dreaded game with Boca Grande was played and won by the Naples girls with a good-sized score.

With six victories under their belts, Naples lasses jumped up a little and took on Non-conference Fort Myers team, only to beat them too.

Back to the conference, the girls played two very hard games with Alva and LaBelle winning only by a small margin. With every game won, Naples came closer to the game with Moore Haven, last year's winners. The Eaglettes overthrew them, also, making a straight 12-12 season.

The girls, under the coaching of Miss Lina Wolfe, basketed a large scoring season. Mary Ann Jolley, high point man, scored 245 points. Joyce Thornton came in next with 164 points. Jackie Sloan was third with 160 points.
