

"BUT HOW COULD A WATERFRONT TOWN BE OUT OF WATERFRONT HOMESITES?"

Actually it's not hard to see why waterfront property in Naples is so doggone scarce — just look at the aerial photograph above! and it's no secret that Royal Harbor has miles of seawalled, waterfront property. Here you'll find lovely waterfront homesites priced from $6,950 and that includes seawall and boat dock, too!

Be our guest for a boat cruise through the meandering Royal Harbor waterways. We'll be happy to introduce you to Royal Harbor residents and show you how much fun backyard boating can be. Just moments from the 10,000 islands, Royal Harbor is directly on the inland waterway.

It was nice to see Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Livingston, former residents of Palm Lake and now of Ft. Myers, at the East Naples Methodist Church last Sunday.

Reverend Robert Foxworthy in the "Words of Welcome" part of the service found that there were nine out-of-state visitors in church for the first time. It was amusing to hear one couple from Michigan say that the temperature in Florida, when they arrived, was identical with their Michigan temperature when they left their home state. Of course, we all know occasions of this kind are very rare at this time of the year.

Nine mobile home parks were represented in the congregation. Lately, Harmony Shores continues to lead, followed by Palm Lake, Jackson Gateway, East Naples, Enchanting Acres, Moorhead Manor, Boyds, Lake Kelly and Rock Creek.

Reverend Foxworthy commended Miss Cathy Dysert for the way she leads the congregation in the "Responsive Reading". Miss Dysert is also a member of the choir.

A splendid duet was sung by Mrs. Andrew Harris and Mrs. Howard Fields Jr. accompanied by Mrs. Dell Settles, the choir director.

Last Sunday was a communion service. The pastor, in his sermon, mentioned the commencement of 40 days of Lent, also how Methodists still believe in "abstinence, sacrifice and love behind our gift to God."

Dr. Helen Wilcox and Mrs. Robert Harrom assisted the pastor in Holy Communion.

PALM LAKE

On account of the death of one of our Palm Lake residents we cancelled our shuffleboard tournament until the following day.

Every game played was relatively close. Dorothy Donelson and Roland Mott were the eventual winners with Bill Nash and Joe Krempfer the runner-up team.

The Donelson - Mott team won their first game from Ted spaces in Palm Lake.

Jim and Florence Edinborrow, Detroit friends of nearly 40 years, have purchased a beautiful new 12 wide mobile home on Lane "B".

Mr. and Mrs. Edinborrow hope to retire to Naples in the near future. Newspaper labor trouble has kept them in Detroit until lately. They are down in the south now on a vacation.

The Edinborrows have disposed of their mobile home and trailer lot space near Naples which they have used for a winter vacation spot for several years. We welcome them as our latest Palm Lake residents.

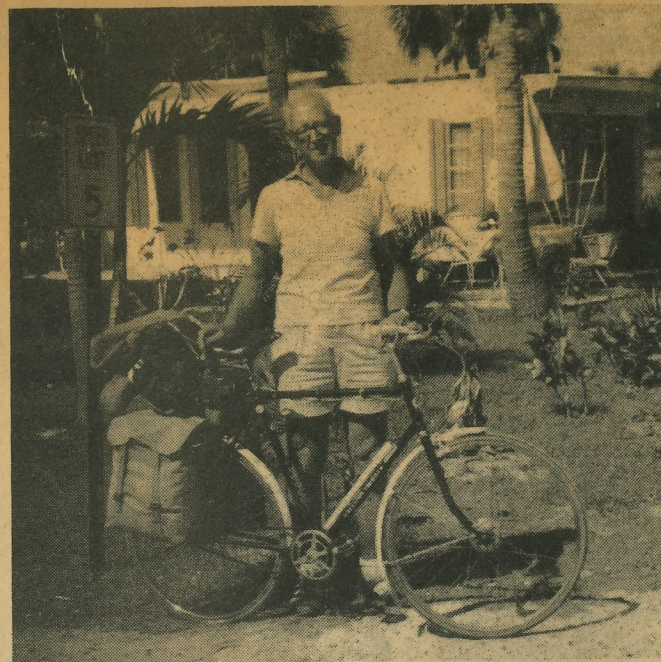

Loren E. Long is visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Long, Palm Lake residents. Mr. Long will enjoy his vacation in wonderful Naples after a winter in his home town, Indianapolis.

Fred Houck, who plays in our card games every Wednesday evening, has a habit of winning the big jack-pot after going the whole evening without a win. Mr. and Mrs. Houck were the biggest winners last week. Fred won the jack - pot and Clarissa also won one game. Emma Carter and Bob Moorhead were second in the win column. They each won three games. Charlotte Gordon won two games and Gertrude Smithe won two and split one game. Other winners were: Bette Litzkow, Esther McLaughlin, Florence Edinborrow, Jim Somers, Jack Brown, Edna Noyes, Dorothy Donelson, Al Muthig, Rita Raymond and Lillie Dickson.

Gilbert Elliott, long time resident of Palm Lake, was buried in Antwerp, Ohio, last Wednesday. Mr. Elliott was employed by the Collier - Ford - Mercury agency on the north Trail for many years. Mr. and Mrs. Elliott's son, Larry, his wife and three children motored down to visit his father. When they arrived they all made arrangements to fly back to their home in Ohio to attend the funeral. Gilbert Elliott was also survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Elliott, also residents of Antwerp.

articles while she had so many visitors during her recent bereavement. They were thanked by Dorothy Donelson, club president.

Gertrude Smith thanked her "secret pal" and the members for the birthday cards received.

President Donelson thanked the meetings hostesses, Emma Carter and Mary Gray.

MOORHEAD MANOR

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Long, of Palm Lake, were entertained by their daughter and husband,

Mr. and Mrs. Don Green, on their 45th wedding anniversary. The Longs' son, Loren, from Indianapolis, was also here to help with the celebration.

We understand the senior Longs were also surprised with champagne at their party.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Hupman are moving into their new 12-wide mobile home very shortly.

Mrs. Alice Parker and children are new park residents. Mrs. Parker is Mrs. Jean Newton's daughter. Other new residents are Mr. and Mrs. Ethel Deavers and family.

The parents of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Stephens are paying them a visit. They are from New York.

Recent additional residents to the park in their travel trailers are: Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Weekler, Wisconsin; Mr. and Mrs. Win Larson, Wisconsin; Mr. and Mrs. William Elton, Michigan; Mr. and Mrs. Ford Jackson, Illinois; Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Smith, Illinois; Mr. and Mrs. George Rollo, Wisconsin; Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Millsbaugh, New Jersey; Mr. and Mrs. B.

J. Kees, Illinois; Mr. and Mrs. G. Wright, from Canada.

ENCHANTING ACRES

After a wonderful three months visit with Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Kirk and their infant daughter Libby, Mrs. Jane Capito has left Enchanting Acres for Lynchburg, Va. Mrs. Capito is Mrs. Kirk's mother. All the park residents will miss her as she is a very gracious lady.

Eighty - one players sat in at the bijou card games last Thursday evening. The big jac-pot winner was Mrs. Amelia Stefani.

The food at last week's potluck dinner was again delicious, with more than 100 in attendance. The hosts and hostesses were Mr. and Mrs. Gene Edwards and Mr. and Mrs. Milt Ports.

Peg Giles was the winner at the five tables of bridge last Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Homer are enjoying a visit in their new mobile home from Mr. and Mrs. Ray T. Pepper, of Carlisle Penn., and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Charles, from Harrisburg, Penn.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Brown are presently occupying Mr. Bart Palmer's mobile home.

As we have mentioned before it is surprising the number of out of town folks who visit Naples in their travel trailers. Here is a list of newcomers welcomed to Enchanting Acres last week: Dr. Charles

Bradley, from New Smyrna Beach, Fla. (Dr. Bradley is Naples' health officer); Mr. and Mrs. Leo Fournier, New Hampshire; Mr. and Mrs. C. Norgard, Canada; Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Mesinger, Arkansas; Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Leap, Indiana; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Giles, Pennsylvania; Mr. and Mrs. G. A. White, Canada; Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Roth, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Van

Delaney. They won this one too, 78 to 55. Kremper and Nash had to beat Hobart Smith and Al McLaughlin in a very close game. The score was 93 to 88. They won another close game playing against the team of Stanley Brookins and Felix Shifkoski. This winning score was 76 to 55.

The final game of Donelson and Mott against Nash and Kremper could have been won by either team several times during play. However, several 10 - off - kitchen shots were played by both teams. The Donelson - Mott team finally won out, 81 to 68.

The point standings now are: Ralph 72, Bill Nash 65, Wilf Raymond and Dorothy Donelson tied with 62 points each and Felix Shifkoski quite close to the leaders with 50.
