

Policies

Attribution

Materials in the Fairhope Single Tax Corporation Online Archives are available to the public at no charge. The Corporation requests that the attribution "courtesy of the Fairhope Single Tax Corporation Online Archives" be included when using materials from the Collection.

Access and Printing

FSTC Archives kiosk at the Fairhope Public Library

The FSTC computer kiosk is available at the Fairhope Public Library for users who wish to research the FSTC Archives there. Printing is available at a nominal charge. Reference librarians are available to assist, and Library hours of operation and location information are available at www.fairhopelibrary.org.

Printing

Printing from this online site results in good quality images suitable for the needs of most. If not, then use the 'request image' button online and your request will be processed and sent to you via email in a day or two. A volunteer checks the incoming requests and fulfills them as quickly as possible. Printing (nominal charge) is also available through the FSTC computer kiosk at the Fairhope Public Library as described below.
