

Reference Guide

Midland County Circuit Court Records

The Midland County Circuit Court Records includes all available case records from the Chancery Court, Old Law, New Law and Criminal Case series, 1857-1946. Records in this collection include divorce records, property disputes, and limited naturalization records.

Researching the Collection

To search the collection online utilize the Advanced Search feature.

In the field Catalog Number: input 2007.001.0001

Use the field Box Inventory to search the collection.

The court cases are indexed with the following information in the case description.

Date of first and last document

Type of case

Final Disposition

Number of Pages

Complainant/Plaintiff

Defendant/Respondent

Judge/Justice

Clerk

Circuit Court Commissioner

Others involved in case:

Other notable papers:

Other notes/conservation:

Reviewing and Requesting Circuit Court Record Case Files

To review the case file visit the MCHS Archives in the H.D. Doan History Center during public research hours: Tuesday and Thursday 1-4pm or by appointment.

Make note of the Folder title with case # (example: NL#1063), box number and folder number for the record you are seeking.

Submit requests for copies of case files by e-mail to Laudeman@midlandcenter.org, use the subject line: Midland County Circuit Court Records. Include in the e-mail the Folder Title, Box Number and Folder number.

Cost for copies is .20 per page plus postage.

Please allow 3-5 business days for processing requests.