STUDEBAKER FAMILY

JACOB FRANKLIN STUDEBAKER C7613

b 26 May 1844 Ashland County, Ohio.
s/o John Clement Studebaker & Rebecca Mohler Studebaker
d 17 Dec. 1887 Chicago, Ill.
bur City Cemetery South Bend, Ind.
m 4 Oct. 1864 Harriet Chord b 1848 d/o Samuel Chord d 4 Jan 1909

Jacob attended Notre Dame 2 years, then journeyed to Tiffin, Ohio where he learned the trade of wagon and carriage making with Peter Van Ness. Returning to St. Joseph County, Indiana he engaged in farming for 3 years. In 1868 he joined the Studebaker Brothers Manufacturing Co. as a salesman and later became secretary. After marriage he became a Baptist continuing a trend away from the German-Baptist heritage of his ancestors.

Jacob married Miss Harriet Chord of South Bend, Indiana, and maintained a large home next to John Mohler's "Sunnyside." Their children were Ida and Helen, later Mrs. E.I. Kuhns and Mrs. Russell Ulrich. After Jacob's death his widow married and passed her later years in Buffalo, N.Y.
