NATIONAL MERIT FINALISTS

SOUTH AMERICAN EXCHANGE STUDENTS

CHRISTIAN

Christian Juchem is a foreign exchange student from Porto Alegre, Brazil. Before arriving in Monrovia, he stopped over in Miami, Florida, on January 5, took a tour of Miami, and liked it very much.

In his spare time, Christian likes to dance, play soccer, basketball, and go to parties.

Back in Brazil he has a nine-year-old sister and a fourteen-year-old brother. Christian has been graduated from high school, but he plans to go back to college and become a physician. He has been studying English for about five years and is fairly fluent in it.

All of us who met him during Annual Staff fourth period liked him and hope he has a good stay in America and brings back many good memories to Brazil.

-Anthony

PEDRO

There is a new addition to our swim team this year. Pedro Bonnett, an exchange student from Bogota, Columbia, is that addition. He specializes in the butterfly and free-style strokes.

Pedro is now living with the Lord family and will be until September. He left behind a family of two sisters, 27 and 25, and a girl friend, we think, but he's not saying.

Some of the things Pedro misses are salsa music and the beaches around Cartegina, the town from "Romancing the Stone."

Good luck, Pedro, and we hope you had a great time swimming for the Wildcats.

-Anthony

INTO THE 90'S WITH 1989 MONROVIAN SET

It was Mickey Mouse's 60th Birthday and the 85th Anniversary of the Ice Cream Cone; however, the important event for the sixteen people on these facing pages was meeting deadlines, being creative, and getting this book out before the 80's turned into the 90's.

T. S. Eliot would have been one hundred years old this year . . . if he had lived, and there was thought of dedicating the book to him. But Pat Hooven seemed more important to us, somehow.

Laura, Cynthia, and FTJ finished the cover in June of the previous year in order to save money. Not all staff members liked it, they preferring an embossed Wildcat with sharp teeth. Too bad, guys, art won out.

Laura was quietly authoritative, Mark and Monique wrestled, Billy burped, Cynthia posed, Robert said the "s" word, Holly went to Mr. Becker's room for a soda, Ryan wasted film, Jason did his Spanish, Jeni was dependable, Robin came from Utah, Dorothy watched after Kevin, who went home often for short naps, Anthony dealt with Chris Vossbrink, Paige sneered, Rochelle eyed Anthony, and FTJ aged.

As in previous years, Mrs. Asano fed us, Mrs. Densham brought us complaints from parents, Mrs. Hartling understood grumbling stomachs, and Paul the Custodian let us keep our mess in Rm. 104 messy.

Do treasure this book; you almost didn't get it!
