A Sophomore Is . . .

not screaming at the end of "Carrie" because the mouth is full of Freshen-Up.

being dazzled by Mrs. Sear's collection of turquoise jewelry.

waiting in the teachers' lot for the Driver's Ed car and Mr. Stewart.

getting out of classes legally for a dreaded trip to the orthodontist.

trying out for JV Cheer for the heck of it.

Roger Straley striving for a buckwheat image.

Even though I failed your class I got something out of it. It helped me with the book of the bible and how to understand it. Thank you for being a nice teacher. Have a nice summer.

A Junior Is . . .

still talking to freshmen.

at the Sadie Hawkins wearing a tie.

aware that there used to be Homercom at this school.

happy not to be a Sophomore anymore.

not jaded enough to sell 25¢ tickets to the Bell Tower.

so in doubt of his security that his belt goes through all the loops.

stunned by the cost of a corsage for the Prom.
