

LIVING LEGEND LIBRARY
Oklahoma Christian College
Route One, Box 141
Oklahoma City, Oklahoma 73111

Recording of Interview with	John D. Mayo
Identification of Interviewee	Establisher of Mayo Furniture Early Tulsa
Subject(s) of discussion	Growth of Tulsa Since 1903
Name of Interviewer	Don Woods
Date and place of Interview	September 1970 Mayo Building Tulsa, Oklahoma
Brief synopsis of Interview	Mr. Mayo discusses his early settling in Tulsa. He describes Tulsa and its leaders since 1903.

Catalog file No.

136

MEASURE	SUBJECT MATTER	DRAMATIC QUOTES (Key by Number)
004	Discusses his birthplace and parentage.
013	Discusses why he came to Oklahoma in 1903.
050	Discusses the starting of their furniture in 1903. (John D. and G.A. Mayo)	business
067	Discusses the discovery of gas and oil around Tulsa. (starting Gulf and Gayle Oil)
087	Tells of Frisco extending on to Oklahoma City from Sapula.
097	Describes the early furniture which he sold in his first furniture store. (bedroom, living room, and dining room)
160	Discusses early business in the furniture.
172	Discusses leaders in Tulsa in 1900-1913.
200	Discusses the outside features of the stores. (sidewalks)
209	Discusses the Good Will trip he made. (Tells people about what Oklahoma had to offer for them) 1908
262	Describes the value of a Good Will trip.
274	Discusses the wide open west and the future of Oklahoma as a good prospect for industry.
304	Describes the facilities and qualities Oklahoma possesses

MEASURE	SUBJECT MATTER	DRAMATIC QUOTES (Key by Number)
322	Describes the physical growth of Tulsa. (paving of streets 1905-1906, first automobile 1907, first tall building--First National, etc.)	Buildings
434	Discusses other leaders in Oklahoma that aren't previously mentioned.
465	Describes the muddy condition in the early days in Tulsa. (horses pulling taxi cabs down the streets)	TRANSFORMATION
500	Describes the most tragic events which occurred in Tulsa during his life.
537	Discusses the News worthy events which occurred in Tulsa during his life.
575	Describes the grand opening of the Mayo Hotel.	Hotels