TULSA

DO YOU REALIZE HOW FAST TULSA IS GROWING?

H. C. Hall founded Tulsa in 1882. The Federal Census of 1900 gave the city 1,390 population. At the time of Oklahoma's admission to Statehood, in 1907, a special census showed Tulsa with 7,298 inhabitants. In 1910 it was 18,182—in 1920 it was 72,075, and the Census Department estimated that on July 1, 1928, Tulsa's population was 170,500.

With the money which "Flowing Gold" has brought, the pioneer spirit which has guided the citizenry and the inestimable help which her strategic location in the heart of "The Magic Empire" of Northeastern Oklahoma has given to Tulsa, the following figures have been made possible:
